Introduction to Lebanon Valley College

Lebanon Valley College, a church related college of Liberal Arts and Sciences, enjoys the distinction and prestige resulting from ninety years of service to American youth and to Christian higher education. Classified as a small college, it enjoys a reputation for friendliness and courtesy. Placing strong emphasis on student-faculty contact, Lebanon Valley College is proud of the amount of individual attention devoted to each student. It strives to provide an opportunity for each student to develop his intellectual capacities and his whole personality. Its curriculum, designed to provide a basic foundation of liberal education, also offers professional specialization in areas in which staff and facilities are available.

History and General Information

HISTORY

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE was founded in Annville, Pennsylvania, in 1866 by members of the Eastern Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ. From the beginning it has been a coeducational institution fostering high standards of scholarship in a Christian atmosphere.

With a student body of forty-nine, the college opened on May 7, 1866, in a building donated by the Annville Academy. Dr. Thomas Rees Vickroy served as its president during the first five years of its existence. During succeeding years the institution grew in numbers and facilities. In 1890, the college received the Mary A. Dodge Scholarship of $10,000, which enabled it to close its first quarter century with increased confidence for the future.

In 1897, under the presidency of Dr. Hervin U. Roop, the college entered a period of expansion during which Engle Hall, the Carnegie Library, and North Hall, now Keister Hall, were built. During this period the destruction by fire of the old Administration Building tested the loyalty of college supporters but did not interfere with the program of expansion. The friends of the college rallied to build a new and larger Administration Building, a men's residence hall, and a heating plant. Under Dr. Roop's presidency improved quarters and modern equipment were provided for the science departments. His vision and initiative laid the foundation for the continuing success of Lebanon Valley College.

The inauguration of George Daniel Gossard as President in 1912, was the beginning of an era of prosperity for Lebanon Valley College. During his term of office the student body tripled in numbers, the faculty increased in numbers and attainments, and the elimination of all phases of secondary education raised the institution to true college status. During this same period two successful endowment campaigns were completed.

Dr. Gossard was succeeded by President Clyde A. Lynch, who built soundly upon the foundations previously laid. Under his administration the bonds of affection between the college and the church were strengthened, the active support of the alumni was vastly stimulated, academic standards were raised, the services of the college were extended over a wider area, and as a visible symbol of his energetic administration, a physical education building was erected.

Following Dr. Lynch's administration, the Trustees elected to the presidency Dr. Frederic K. Miller, one of the members of the faculty. His election was greeted with warmest enthusiasm by both faculty and constituents. Under his leadership the curriculum has been expanded, the administrative staff reorganized, and relationships with the local community and alumni strengthened.

The present progressive and efficient administration is assured of increasing institutional support through the merger, in 1946, of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ and the Evangelical Church. The current three-million dollar Development Program is providing for additional expansion of the college's physical plant and instructional facilities, and will better enable Lebanon Valley College to continue its proud task of educating American youth in the Christian liberal tradition for which it was founded.

LOCATION AND ENVIRONMENT

Lebanon Valley College is located in Annville, Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, twenty miles east of Harrisburg, and five miles west of Lebanon. The campus faces on U.S. Highway 422 and State Highway 934. It can be reached by the Reading Railroad and by bus from Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, D. C., and New York. It can also be reached by the Pennsylvania Turnpike, using the Lancaster-Lebanon Interchange.

Annville is a residential community of about 3,500 people, situated in the agricultural country of the Pennsylvania Germans. In addition to the cultural facilities available at the college, the neighboring communities of Harrisburg, Hershey, and Lebanon offer concerts, lectures, plays, etc., throughout the year. There are nine churches of different denominations in the community, and churches of every denomination are available within a five mile radius of the college.

CATALOGUE

OBJECTIVES

The educational objectives of Lebanon Valley College are as follows:

1. To provide an opportunity for qualified young people to procure a liberal education and to develop their total personalities under Christian influences.
2. To help provide the Church with capable and enlightened leaders, both clerical and lay.
3. To foster Christian ideals and to encourage faithfulness to the Church of the student's choice.
4. To help train well-informed, intelligent, and responsible citizens, qualified for leadership in community, state and nation.
5. To provide pre-professional students with the broad preliminary training recommended by professional schools and professional associations.
6. To provide, in an atmosphere of liberal culture, partial or complete training for certain professions and vocations.

ACCREDITATION

Lebanon Valley College is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and by the Department of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania. It is a member of the Association of American Colleges and of the American Council on Education, and is on the approved list of the Regents of the University of the State of New York and the American Association of University Women.

The Conservatory of Music, an integral part of Lebanon Valley College, is a member of, and accredited by, the National Association of Schools of Music.

SUPPORT AND CONTROL

Lebanon Valley College receives support from the General Conference and three local conferences—East Pennsylvania (U.B.), Pennsylvania, and Virginia—of the Evangelical United Brethren Church; also from industry, alumni, friends, and parents of students. The institution receives no financial support from taxation.

Total assets of Lebanon Valley College exceed $3,000,000. Among its assets are endowment funds in excess of $1,000,000. Aside from general endowment income available for unrestricted purposes, there are a number of special funds designated for specific uses such as professorships, scholarships, and the library.

At Lebanon Valley College, as at most institutions of higher learning, the tuition and other annual charges paid by the student do not cover the total cost of his education. The College uses income received from the General Church, the supporting Conferences, the Alumni Association, and endowment to supplement the student fees and charges.

Control is vested in a Board of Trustees composed of forty-five members, thirty-two of whom represent the three supporting conferences; three trustees represent the alumni of the institution and ten are elected at large. Members of the college faculty who are department chairmen are ex-officio members of the Board of Trustees.

CAMPUS, BUILDINGS, AND EQUIPMENT

The campus of thirty-five acres is situated in the center of Annville. The college plant consists of seventeen buildings including:

The Administration Building—Administrative offices are located on the main floor. The remainder of the building is devoted to classrooms, laboratories, and faculty offices.

The Carnegie Library—The library of nearly 60,000 volumes contains an excellent collection of the customary aids for reference work. In addition to the books used by the various departments of the college, a diversified collection of periodicals is available.

The Hiram Herr Shenk Collection (which includes the Heilman Library) and the C. B. Montgomery Memorial contain many valuable works dealing with the history and customs of the Pennsylvania Germans. These collections are housed in special rooms and are open for reference use under staff supervision.

A new library building, to contain the most modern and approved library facilities, is now under construction on the campus. It will be known as the Gossard Memorial Library. The present library building will be renovated into a College Union for faculty and students.

Residence Halls—There are five residence halls for women (Green, Vickroy, South, West and Sheridan) and two for men (Kreider and Keister). The Mary Capp Green Residence Hall opened this year houses approximately one hundred women.

The Lynch Memorial Physical Education Building—This modern physical education plant is well equipped for physical education, recreation and campus meetings.

Infirmary—Staffed by resident nurses under the supervision of the college physician, the infirmary is available to all students.

Engle Hall—This building houses the Conservatory of Music and includes an auditorium, classrooms, studios, offices, and private practice rooms.

Science Hall—Modern facilities for the college's Chemistry and Biology Departments will be located in this building, now undergoing renovation.

Athletic Fields—The athletic fields provide space for football, basketball, hockey, track, baseball, volleyball, and other sports.

Student Activities

Extra-curricular activities constitute a vital part of college life at Lebanon Valley College. Activities outside the classroom range from various clubs and musical organizations to student government groups and numerous religious activities. The student has a wide variety from which to choose.

THE RELIGIOUS LIFE

Lebanon Valley College was founded as a Christian college and continues to be dedicated to this objective. All students are invited and urged to participate in some phase of religious activity.

Chapel

A college chapel service is held weekly in the College Church. Students are required to attend. Faculty, students, local clergymen from the various denominations, and nationally and internationally known speakers participate in this service.

Sunday Services

The College Church and the other churches of the community extend a warm welcome to all college students who wish to attend Sunday worship. A Sunday School class especially for college students is conducted in the College Church each Sunday during the academic year.

The Student Christian Association

The Student Christian Association conducts daily morning prayers, weekly devotional services, campus-wide Bible studies, special seasonal services, and intercollegiate exchange religious programs. In addition, the Student Christian Association sponsors social events throughout the year and arranges for the Big Sister-Little Sister and the Big Brother-Little Brother program for incoming freshmen.

All students are urged to participate actively in the student-centered religious programs.

Religious Emphasis Week

This is one of the outstanding religious events of the school year. Notable speakers are invited to share their experiences with the student body through classroom lectures, seminars, convocations, and personal interviews.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Religion and Life Lectureships

The purpose of the Religion and Life Lectureship is to deepen the student's understanding of some of the problems of life and the religious resources that are available to meet such problems. Each semester a Christian leader of national or international reputation is invited to spend a day on campus in order to confer with students and faculty, to conduct seminars, and to address the entire college community.

Christian Vocation Week

During this period special emphasis is given to the Christian way of life as the basis for all vocations and professions. Opportunity is provided for students interested in full-time church vocations to confer with visiting teams of advisors and counselors.

Delta Tau Chi

Delta Tau Chi is an organization composed of students who have decided to devote full-time service to church vocations. Membership is open to all students who wish to participate in the activities of the organization. The group holds regularly scheduled meetings, conducts programs at various hospitals and county homes, and enters into other community projects.

FACULTY-STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Ultimate responsibility for activities on the college campus rests with the faculty and the administration. However, the faculty and the administration have delegated powers and responsibilities to the student governing bodies so that, to a large extent, students govern themselves. The college encourages initiative and self-government as a part of the democratic training offered.

Student-Faculty Council

The coordination of student affairs is the responsibility of the Student-Faculty Council. The Council is composed of three faculty members and a representative from each of the organizations on the campus. The purpose of this organization, in addition to coordinating student activities, is to consider matters pertaining to student welfare, to seek improvement of the social life of the campus, to serve as liaison between students and faculty, and to suggest and initiate programs for the over-all improvement of the college.

Governing Bodies

Four student governing bodies function on the campus. The Senate is the governing body for students living in the men's dormitories and for men students residing in the community with other than their immediate families; the Men's Day Student Congress is the governing body for commuting men students; the Resident Women's Student Government Association is the governing body for dormitory women; and the Women's Commuter Council is the governing body for commuting women students. These four organizations, with the approval of the faculty, make and administer the rules which govern certain aspects of student life.

CATALOGUE

CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

Social Organizations

Six organizations endeavor to enrich the social program of the college by sponsoring social activities on the campus and in the community, and by broadening the experience of its members through group action.

Phi Lambda Sigma	Kappa Lambda Nu
Kappa Lambda Sigma	Delta Lambda Sigma
Knights of the Valley	The Legionnaires

Recognition Groups

Students who have achieved scholastic distinction in their academic work, or in certain areas, are eligible for membership in honorary scholastic societies.

Phi Alpha Epsilon	Pi Gamma Mu
Beta Beta Beta

Forensic and Dramatics

An opportunity to develop dramatic and musical talents under qualified leadership is offered to the students of Lebanon Valley College by the following organizations:

Wig and Buckle Club	College Band
Symphony Orchestra	Glee Club
College Chorus

Publications

Practical experience in management, writing, and editorial work is available to students through membership on the staff of the college yearbook and the campus newspaper.

The Quittapahilla	La Vie Collegienne

Departmental Clubs

Many departmental clubs provide opportunities for students to participate in supplemental department activities. At regular meetings reports on appropriate topics are presented and discussed. Other activities sponsored by the departmental clubs include lectures by specialists in the club's particular field of interest, educational films, and field trips.

Chemistry: American Chemical Society Affiliates

Elementary Education: Childhood Education Club

Modern Languages: French Club

English: Green Blotter Club

Education: Student Education Association

History and Political Science: Political Science Club

Psychology: Psychology Club

ATHLETICS AND RECREATION

Lebanon Valley College maintains a full program of intramural and intercollegiate athletic activities. Intramural leagues and tournaments are held in the various sports for men while the women acquire points toward individual awards by participation in the women's intramural program.

The college participates in five intercollegiate sports for men (baseball, basketball, football, track, wrestling) and two for women (basketball and hockey). There are two athletic organizations on the campus, the "L" Club for men and the Women's Athletic Association.

Lebanon Valley College is a member of the following national and regional athletic associations: National Collegiate Athletic Association, Middle Atlantic States Collegiate Athletic Conference, and Eastern College Athletic Conference.

Admission

Students are admitted to Lebanon Valley College on the basis of scholarly achievement, intellectual capacity, character, personality, and ability to profit by college experience.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. All communications concerning admission should be addressed to the Director of Admissions, Lebanon Valley College, Annville, Pennsylvania.

2. Applications should be submitted as early as possible in the latter part of the junior or the beginning of the senior year of high school or preparatory school.

3. Applications must be filed on forms provided by the Office of Admissions.

4. Each application must be accompanied by an application fee of $5.00 This fee is not refundable.

5. A transcript of the secondary school record, on a form provided by the college for that purpose, must be sent by the principal to the Director of Admissions.

6. A student transferring from another collegiate institution must present an official transcript of his scholastic record and evidence of honorable dismissal.

7. All new students are required to present at the time of registration a physician's report of medical examination and a vaccination certificate showing successful vaccination within a period of seven years before entrance to college.

Admission is based on total information submitted by the applicant or in his behalf. Final decision, therefore, cannot be reached until all information has been supplied by the applicant.

FACTORS DETERMINING ADMISSION

Each candidate for admission will be considered individually and the decision of the Admissions Committee with respect to admission will be based on the following factors:

1. The transcript of the applicant's secondary school record.

2. Recommendation by the principal, teachers, and other responsible persons as to the applicant's special abilities, integrity, sense of responsibility, seriousness of purpose, initiative, self-reliance, and concern for others.

3. A personal interview, whenever possible, with the Director of Admissions or his designate.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

4. The results of examinations which may be required by the Committee on Admissions.
 - a. It is recommended that applicants take the College Entrance Board examinations. Beginning with the class entering in September, 1958, College Entrance Board examinations will be required of all applicants for admission.

Department of Music

A candidate for admission to the Music Education curriculum must be a high school graduate and must present four units of English. In addition, the applicant must show evidence by an audition before members of the conservatory faculty of:

- a. An acceptable singing voice and a fairly quick sense of tone and rhythm;
- b. Ability to sing at sight hymn and folk tunes with a fair degree of accuracy and facility;
- c. Ability to play the piano or some orchestral instrument at a level representing two years of study.

RECOMMENDED UNITS FOR ADMISSION

It is recommended that all candidates offer sixteen units of entrance credit and graduation from an accredited secondary school or by an equivalency certificate acquired through examination.

Ten of the sixteen units offered for admission must be from the following subjects: English, foreign language, mathematics, science, and social studies.

An applicant for admission whose preparatory courses do not coincide with the college's requirements (see below) may be considered by the Committee on Admissions if his academic record is of high quality and if, in the opinion of the Committee, he appears to be qualified to do college work satisfactorily. All entrance deficiencies must be removed before sophomore academic status will be granted.

ADMISSION WITH ADVANCED STANDING

A candidate who applies for advanced standing through credits earned at another institution must submit an official transcript of his record for evaluation. This transcript must be sent directly to the Director of Admissions, Lebanon Valley College, by the Registrar of the previous institution, upon the request of the candidate.

Credits earned at an approved institution will be honored, provided they carry a grade of "C" or better and that the work parallels courses listed in the college catalogue or can be substituted for courses or electives.

Subject to the conditions listed in the preceding paragraph, Lebanon Valley College will recognize for transfer credit a total of seventeen hours of USAFI course work, provided such credit is recommended by the American Council of Education's "A Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services."

Credit will not be granted for correspondence courses.

Expenses

Lebanon Valley College is a non-profit institution. The tuition, fees, and other expenses paid by the students cover less than seventy-five percent of the college's instructional and operational costs. The remaining twenty-five per cent is provided by income from the college's endowment and by gifts from the Evangelical United Brethren Church, alumni, industry, and friends. The cost to the student is maintained at a level consistent with high quality instruction and adequate facilities.

Tuition, fees, and other charges for the college year 1957-1958 are listed below. (For a description of fees, see page 19.)

DESCRIPTION OF FEES

An application fee of five dollars must be paid by all students applying for admission to the college. This fee covers the administrative expense of processing the application. It must accompany the application for admission and is not refundable.

Tuition, charged at the rate of $325.00 per semester, entitles the student to seventeen semester hours of instruction per semester.

Payment of the student activities fee of twenty-five dollars per semester entitles a student to the following privileges: use of physical education facilities and intramural athletic equipment; subscription to the college newspaper and yearbook; membership in the Student Christian Association and student government associations; admission to home intercollegiate athletic contests; and use of the college health facilities.

All students attending the college on a full-time basis are required to participate in the Student Sickness and Accident Insurance Plan, or to sign a waiver releasing the college from any liability arising from accidental injuries sustained by the student on the college premises or in any college activity in which the student is involved. The Insurance Plan costs fifteen dollars per year.

The residence hall key fee is used to defray the annual expense of changing locks on the doors of all rooms in the men's residence halls.

A graduation fee of twenty dollars is charged all seniors to cover the cost of the diploma and the expenses involved in the commencement activities. This fee does not cover the rental of cap and gown.

DEPOSITS

Admission deposit (required of all new students)	$50.00
Residence hall room reservation (not required of new students)	50.00 per year
Room damage deposit (required of all dormitory students)	10.00 per year
Laboratory breakage deposits:
Biology, all courses	2.00 per course
Chemistry 12, 20, 21, 30, 31, 40	5.00 per course
Chemistry 22, 35, 41, 44	10.00 per course

The admission deposit of fifty dollars is required of all new students, including transfers, accepted for admission to the college. It is payable within ten days after the student has been notified of his acceptance. Until this deposit is paid the student is not guaranteed a place in the entering class. The admission deposit is not refundable, but will be applied to the student's account upon registration.

A room damage deposit in the amount of ten dollars per year is required of all students residing in a residence hall. This deposit is refunded at the end of the year, provided the occupant of the room has not damaged it in any way. If it is determined that a student has damaged a room or the furniture in it, only that portion of his deposit not used to restore the loss will be returned.

Residence hall rooms are reserved only for those students who make an advance room reservation deposit of fifty dollars. This deposit must be paid by June 1, and is credited to the student's first semester account. This deposit is not required of new students whose admission deposit is substituted for this purpose.

All breakage in the chemical and biological laboratories will be charged to the student responsible for the breakage. Any balance of a laboratory breakage deposit due the student at the completion of a particular course will be returned to him or credited to his account; any deficit beyond the deposit will be charged to his regular college account.

CATALOGUE

PAYMENT OF FEES

Charges for tuition, board, room, other regular fees, and insurance will be issued at the beginning of each semester for the full semester. These charges are due and payable on or before the day of registration. Bills for all other fees, breakage deposits, and books will be issued within thirty days after the beginning of each semester and are payable ten days after they are issued.

Satisfactory settlement of all bills and fees is required before an honorable dismissal will be granted or grades released.

Candidates for degrees must make settlement of all accounts before diplomas are awarded.

DEFERRED PAYMENTS

Parents who prefer to pay tuition and other fees in equal monthly installments during the academic year may make such arrangements through the Business Office. The cost is slightly higher than when payment is made in full at the beginning of each semester.

REFUND POLICY

No refund will be allowed on residence hall room rent.

The unused portion of the cost for board will be refunded beginning seven days after honorable withdrawal from the college. A student who withdraws without officially notifying the Registrar forfeits all right to a refund.

When a student retains his class standing during absence from college because of illness or for any other reason, no refund will be allowed on tuition or board. In a case of suspension or expulsion there will be no refund.

A reasonable refund will be allowed on tuition and board to a student who withdraws from the college. The college refund policy is listed below:

Period of student's attendance in college dated from beginning of semester	% of tuition refunded
One week or less	80%
Between one and two weeks	80%
Between two and three weeks	60%
Between three and four weeks	40%
Between four and five weeks	20%
Over five weeks	0%

RESIDENCE HALL ROOMS

The rent for residence hall rooms varies from $87.50 to $100.00 per semester, depending on the type of room.

Occupants of a residence hall room are held responsible for all breakage and loss of furniture, or any damage for which they are responsible.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Each room in the men's residence halls is furnished with a chest of drawers, book case, cots, mattresses, chairs, and study tables. Students must provide bedding, rugs, lamps, and all other furnishings.

Each room in the women's residence halls is furnished with beds, mattresses, chairs, dressers, book case, and study tables. Other desired furnishings must be supplied by the student.

Students rooming in residence halls may not sublet their rooms to commuting students or to others.

Should vacancies occur in any of the residence halls, the college reserves the right to require students rooming in the community to move into a residence hall.

The college reserves the right to close all residence halls during vacations.

Lounges are provided by the college for resident and commuting students.

Financial Aid

Lebanon Valley College gives financial assistance to deserving students in so far as its scholarship and aid funds permit. In the assignment of scholarships and grants-in-aid, and in the granting of loans and other forms of assistance the scholarship record, personal character, general cooperation, and need of the individual are considered.

Scholarships do not apply to accounts for tuition for extra semester hours taken. In general, scholarships are not applicable to summer school tuition. No scholarship or rebate is granted for less than a semester.

Students in need of financial assistance may apply for such aid after they have been notified of their admission to the college. Application for aid should be made to the Chairman of the Scholarship Committee on forms provided by the college.

Scholarships may be granted for periods of from one to four academic years. Grants-in-aid and loans are made for a maximum period of one academic year, but students may reapply. Financial aid for returning students is dependent upon satisfactory scholarship for the preceding semester.

All scholarships and grants-in-aid awarded for a specific school year are payable in two equal installments, one in each semester. Work aids are paid upon certification that the work is completed.

COMPETITIVE SCHOLARSHIPS

Competitive scholarship examinations are conducted at the college each year. Any high school senior, in the upper-third of his class, who meets the admission requirements of the college, is eligible to participate. Information and applications may be procured by writing to the Director of Admissions.

Recipients of competitive scholarships are required to complete their undergraduate work at Lebanon Valley College or refund the used portion of the grant to the college before they can transfer credits to another undergraduate school.

Scholarships won in the Competitive Examinations, or granted for high scholastic standing, can be retained only if the student maintains an average grade of "B" or higher.

THE KIFT-MULLEN MEMORIAL FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS

The Kift-Mullen Memorial Foundation Scholarships are available to college students and seniors who are graduates of Allentown High

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

School preparing to become teachers in the public and parochial schools. Awards in the amount of $200.00 are made by July 1 of each school year.

TUITION REBATES

Resident students preparing for the ministry of the Evangelical United Brethren Church are entitled to an annual reduction of $225.00 in tuition. Commuting students preparing for the ministry of the Evangelical United Brethren Church are entitled to an annual reduction of $125.00 in tuition.

Children of ministers of the Evangelical United Brethren Church residing in the residence halls are entitled to an annual reduction of $90.00 on full tuition; commuting students are entitled to a reduction of $45.00.

GRANTS-IN-AID

Grants-in-aid are defined as credit on tuition allowed students and come directly from college operating income instead of from special gifts or restricted endowment funds.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SELF-SUPPORT

Financial assistance is available in the form of waiterships, janitorships, laboratory aids, clerical aids, work in the library and other forms of work assignments. These are granted to deserving students on the basis of the needs of the college.

LOANS

Income from endowment established as loan funds is available for loans to deserving students. A student may borrow a maximum of $200.00 in any one year and a total of $600.00 during his college career. Loans are interest free during the period that the student is in college. Interest at a nominal rate is charged following graduation or withdrawal from college. Student loan funds are listed below:

Mary A. Dodge Fund	$11,361.36
Daniel Eberly Scholarship Fund	514.66

Academic Procedures

REGISTRATION

Students are required to register for classes on official registration days of each semester and at designated pre-registration days. Information concerning official registration is listed in the college calendar, pages 4 and 5.

LATE REGISTRATION

Students registering later than the days specified will be charged a late registration fee of five dollars. Students desiring to register later than one week after the opening of the semester will be admitted only by special permission of the Dean of the College. Students who do not pre-register during the designated time will be charged a late pre-registration fee of ten dollars.

CHANGE OF REGISTRATION

Change of registration, when necessary, must be made over the signature of the adviser. Registration for a course will not be permitted after the close of the second week of the semester. A student may withdraw from a course any time within the first six weeks of classes in a semester without prejudice.

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION

An orientation period, Freshman Week, of several days at the beginning of the college year is provided to help new students, both freshmen and transfers, to become familiar with their academic surroundings. This time is devoted to lectures, placement tests, social activities, and informal meetings with members of the faculty. New students are acquainted with the college traditions and are instructed in the use of the library.

During the first semester all freshmen and transfer students are required to attend a series of lectures and discussions on campus activities and methods of study.

DISCONTINUANCE OF COURSE

The college reserves the right to withdraw or discontinue any course for which an insufficient number of students have registered.

CONCURRENT COURSES

A student enrolled for a degree at Lebanon Valley College may not carry courses concurrently at any other institution without the consent of his major adviser. Neither may a regular student carry courses concurrently in the Evening or Extension Division of the College without the permission of the major adviser.

A student registered at Lebanon Valley College may not obtain credit for courses taken in other colleges during the summer unless such courses have prior approval of the major adviser.

FACULTY ADVISERS

Each student is assigned a faculty adviser who serves in the capacity of friendly counselor.

The student, before registering for the second year, or the third year, at the latest, must choose a department or a curriculum in which to pursue work of special concentration. This department or curriculum shall be known as his major. The head of the department or the curriculum in which a student has elected to major becomes the adviser for that student. The adviser's approval is necessary before a student may register for or discontinue any course.

ARRANGEMENT OF SCHEDULES

Each student arranges his course of study and his class schedule in consultation with, and approval of, his faculty adviser. Students already in attendance do this during pre-registration periods. For information concerning faculty advisers, new students will consult lists posted by the Registrar on registration days at the beginning of each semester.

LIMIT OF HOURS

To be classified as full-time, a student must take at least twelve semester hours of work. Seventeen semester hours of work is the maximum permitted without special permission of the Dean of the College. The privilege of carrying extra hours will be granted only for compelling reasons and only when a satisfactory grade level has been maintained for the previous semester. An additional charge will be made for all hours above seventeen.

ACADEMIC CLASSIFICATION

Students are classified academically at the end of each semester. Membership in the sophomore, junior, or senior classes is granted to students who have obtained the normal number of semester hours and quality points of the class to which admission is sought, or who, if lacking in credit, do not fall short of the regular amount by more than six semester hours and twelve quality points. For enrollment in the sophomore class a student must have earned 30 semester hours credit and 60 quality points; in the junior class, 60 semester hours credit and 120 quality points; in the senior class, 90 semester hours credit and 180 quality points.

COUNSELING AND PLACEMENT

Lebanon Valley College recognizes as part of its responsibility to its students the need for providing sound educational, vocational, and personal counseling. Measures of interest, ability, aptitude and personality, in addition to other counseling techniques, are utilized in an effort to help each student come to a fuller realization of his capabilities and personality. An important part of the counseling program consists of a series of lectures and discussions conducted as a non-credit course for new students.

The college maintains a placement bureau which aids students in procuring part-time employment while in college, and in obtaining positions upon graduation. A current file is maintained which contains information about positions in various companies and institutions, Civil Service opportunities and examinations, entrance to professional schools, and assistantships. Representatives of various businesses and industries visit the campus annually to interview seniors for prospective employment.

Teacher Placement Bureau

In order to give students the benefit of calls that are received for teachers and to render greater assistance in finding employment, the college provides for a Placement Bureau to keep on file records of students' credentials for those who desire it. A service fee of four dollars is made, payable in the Treasurer's Office. These services of the Placement Bureau are available to graduates for two years after date of graduation. If any graduate desires services beyond the two years following graduation, there is an additional fee of two dollars per year.

Auxiliary Schools Summer, Extension, Evening

Summer sessions, extension classes, and evening classes have enabled teachers, state employees, and others in active employment to attend college courses and secure academic degrees. By a careful selection of courses, made in consultation with the appropriate advisers, students can meet many of the requirements for a baccalaureate degree.

Regularly enrolled students may, by taking summer school courses, meet the requirements for the bachelor's degree in three years.

Extension classes are offered in the William Penn High School, Third and Division Streets, Harrisburg, on Monday through Thursday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 P.M. Extension classes are also offered at the Harrisburg General Hospital. Lebanon Valley College's extension program in Harrisburg is carried on in conjunction with Elizabethtown College and Temple University.

For details pertaining to extension courses write to Mr. Fred Wolf, Director of Harrisburg College Center, 22 South 3rd Street, Harrisburg, Pa. Phone Cedar 2-8083.

Evening classes are offered on the campus.

Summer School in 1957 will begin on June 9.

A course in Education S-40, Student Teaching, will be offered in the 1957 Summer Session at Hershey, Pennsylvania. This course is designed to meet the minimum requirements for Pennsylvania certification in public secondary school teaching.

For details pertaining to Summer School and Evening Courses write to Dr. Carl Y. Ehrhart, Director of Auxiliary Schools, Lebanon Valley College.

Administrative Regulations

The rules of the college are designed to provide for proper regulation of the academic community. The rules and regulations as stated in this bulletin are announcements and in no way serve as a contract between the student and the college. Attendance at the college is a privilege and not a right. The student by his act of registration concedes to the college the right to require his withdrawal any time deemed necessary to safeguard the ideals of scholarship and character, and to secure compliance with regulations. It is expected that the conduct of all campus citizens will conform to accepted standards.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Each student is expected to attend every session of the courses for which he is registered.

If the student shall absent himself without cause he shall be reported to the Registrar's Office. If he continues to absent himself without cause, the instructor shall notify the student's faculty adviser and Dean of the College. The adviser will counsel with the student regarding his work. If the absence is repeated the instructor will discuss the matter with the Dean of the College. The Dean of the College will confer with the student and notify the parents. If the absence is continued the instructor may drop the student from his roll with the consent of the Dean of the College.

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

Chapel service is conducted once a week. Attendance is required of all full-time students. Three absences are allowed during a semester. For each additional unexcused absence one hour will be added to the required hours for graduation.

HAZING

Hazing is strictly prohibited. Any infringement by members of other classes upon the personal rights of freshmen as individuals is interpreted as hazing.

CARS AND STUDENT PARKING

Resident students of the three upper classes may have cars on campus. Resident freshmen students are not permitted to have cars.

All cars owned or operated by Lebanon Valley College students shall be registered with the student Men's Senate Parking Committee. Violations of parking regulations established by the Senate Parking Committee may result in fines.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

TRANSCRIPTS

Each student, former student, or graduate is entitled to one transcript of his college record without charge. For each copy after the first, a fee of one dollar is charged.

REGULATIONS REGARDING STUDENTS ON ACADEMIC PROBATION

1. A student who does not pass, with a C average, at least 60% of his academic load per semester may be placed on probation.

2. A student may be placed on academic probation whenever the character of his work is such as to indicate that the student is in danger of failing to complete the work necessary for graduation.

3. A student placed on probation, who fails to pass all of his work and who does not have a C average for the semester, may be subject to suspension from the college for the semester following, or subject to dismissal. In case of suspension he may be permitted to apply for readmission.

4. A student placed on academic probation will be notified of such status by the Dean of the College and informed of the college regulations governing probationers. Thereafter, infraction of these regulations renders the student liable to dismissal.

5. When a student is put on probation, faculty and parents will be notified by the Dean of the College. The Dean of the College may terminate the period of probation of any student. Usually this occurs at the end of a final marking period.

6. Students on probation are required to regulate their work and their time so as to make a most determined effort to bring their work up to the required standard.

7. The conduct of the probationer is governed by the following rules:

- a. No unexcused class absences will be permitted.
- b. Any office or activity in any college organization that involves such expenditure of time as to jeopardize the successful pursuit of academic work must be relinquished.

Requirements for Degrees

Lebanon Valley College confers five bachelors degrees. They are: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Science in Chemistry, Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts will be conferred upon students who complete the requirements for graduation in the following areas, and who are recommended by the faculty and approved by the Board of Trustees: Biology, English, French, German, Greek, History, Mathematics, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Religion, Sociology, and Spanish.

The degree of Bachelor of Science will be conferred upon students who complete the requirements in the following areas, and who are recommended by the faculty and approved by the Board of Trustees: Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics, Economics and Business Administration, Music Education, Arts-Engineering, Arts-Forestry, and Elementary Education.

The professional degrees of Bachelor of Science in Chemistry, Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology will be conferred upon students who complete the requirements in the respective professional areas and who are recommended by the faculty and approved by the Board of Trustees.

For detailed information see pages 37-54.

SEMESTER HOURS

The requirements for degrees are stated in "semester hours of credit" which are based upon the satisfactory completion of courses of instruction. Generally, one semester hour credit is given for each class hour a week throughout a semester. In courses requiring laboratory work, not less than two hours of laboratory work a week throughout a semester are required for a semester hour of credit. A semester is a term of approximately seventeen weeks.

Candidates for degrees must obtain a minimum of 126 semester hours of credit in academic work, and four semester hours in physical education, making a total of 130 semester hours. It is understood, however, that a student who has a physical disability may be excused (on recommendation from the college physician) from the requirement in physical education without being obliged to substitute other work in order to bring his total semester hours from 126 to 130.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

MAJOR AND MINOR

As a part of the total requirement of 130 semester hours every candidate for a degree must be present at least twenty-four semester hours of course work in one department (to be known as his Major), and at least eighteen semester hours of course work in another department (to be known as his Minor.)* Both Major and Minor must be selected before the beginning of the junior year. The minor must be chosen with the advice and approval of the chairman of the major department. A student accepted as a major in any department has a right to remain in that department as long as he is in college.

EXAMINATIONS

Candidates for degrees are required to take end of course examinations, comprehensive examinations in the major field, and the Graduate Record Examination in the major field.

COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATIONS

Each student must take, during the final semester of his college course, an examination set by his major department. This examination may be written, oral, or both. The purpose of the examination is to test the student's understanding of general principles, as well as his possession of facts, and to promote the student's integration and application of the knowledge acquired in the field of concentration.

GRADUATE RECORD EXAMINATION

Candidates for degrees must take the Advanced Test of the Graduate Record Examination in their major field. This examination is prepared by, and scored by, the Educational Testing Service. The tests cover the entire field of concentration. The results are made available to the student and become a part of his permanent record.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT

Degrees will be conferred only upon candidates who have earned at least 30 semester hours in residence. Credits earned in evening classes and summer school work are residence credit.

QUALITY POINTS

Candidates for degrees also must obtain a minimum of 130 quality points computed in accordance with the grading system indicated below. Beginning with the graduates of the Class of 1958 all candidates for degrees must obtain a minimum of 260 quality points computed in accordance with the revised grading system indicated below.

* Students enrolled in professional curricula, such as Music Education, Economics and Business Administration, Industrial Chemistry, Elementary Education and certain other pre-professional curricula are not required to take a Minor.

CATALOGUE

SYSTEM OF GRADING AND QUALITY POINTS

The work of a student in each subject is graded A, B, C, D, or F. These grades have the following meanings: A, the student has completed the minimum requirements at a high quality level and has presented additional work beyond the requirements (could well be an annotated grade); B, the student has completed the minimum requirements at a high quality level; C, the student has completed the minimum requirements for the course at a satisfactory level; D, the student has completed the minimum requirements of the course at a very low level; F, the student has failed to complete the minimum requirements of the course. When a grade of F has been received, the student may not proceed with any part of the course dependent upon the part in which the grade of F has been received. If a student fails in a subject twice, he may not register for it a third time.

In addition to the above grades the symbols "I," "W," "WP," and "WF" are used on grade reports and in the college records. "I" indicates that the work is incomplete (that the student has postponed with the consent of the instructor, certain required work), but otherwise satisfactory. This work must be completed within the semester following, or the "I" will be converted to an F.

W indicates withdrawal from a course any time within the first six weeks of classes of a semester without prejudice to the student's standing. In case of withdrawal from a course, the symbol WP will be entered if the student's work is satisfactory, and WF if his work is unsatisfactory. The grade WP will be considered as without prejudice to the student's standing, but the grade WF will be counted as an F. If a student withdraws from a course after twelve weeks, without a reason satisfactory to the Registrar, a grade of WF will be recorded.

For each semester hour credit in a course in which a student is graded A, he receives 4 quality points; B, 3; C, 2; and D, 1; F carries no credit and no quality points.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Students transferring from other institutions must secure an average grade of C or better (a quality point of at least 2.0) in work taken at Lebanon Valley College.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE
COOPERATIVE ENGINEERING PROGRAM

ADVISER: DR. BISSINGER

Lebanon Valley College offers a cooperative program in Engineering whereby a student may achieve a liberal arts degree from Lebanon Valley College and also an engineering degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

A student electing to pursue this curriculum spends the first three years in residence at Lebanon Valley College. At the end of these three years he will, if recommended, go to the University of Pennsylvania for two additional years of work in engineering. Upon the successful completion of the five years of study, the student will receive two degrees: one from Lebanon Valley College (the Bachelor of Science degree) and an engineering degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

COOPERATIVE FORESTRY PROGRAM

ADVISER: ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BOLLINGER

Lebanon Valley College offers a program in forestry in cooperation with the School of Forestry of Duke University. Upon successful completion of a five-year coordinated course of study, a student will have earned the Bachelor of Science degree from Lebanon Valley College and the professional degree of Master of Forestry from the Duke School of Forestry.

A student electing to pursue this curriculum spends the first three years in residence at Lebanon Valley College. Here he obtains a sound education in the humanities and other liberal arts in addition to the sciences basic to forestry. Such an education does more than prepare a student for his later professional training; it offers him an opportunity to develop friendships with students in many fields, expand his interests, broaden his perspective, and fully develop his potentialities.

The student devotes the last two years of his program to the professional forestry curriculum of his choice at the Duke School of Forestry. Since Duke offers forestry courses only to senior and graduate students, the student from Lebanon Valley finds himself associating with a mature student body. He is well prepared for further personal and professional development.

Candidates for the forestry program should indicate to the Director of Admissions of Lebanon Valley College that they wish to apply for the Liberal Arts-Forestry Curriculum. Admission to the college is granted under the same conditions as for other curricula. At the end of the first semester of the third year the college will recommend qualified students for admission to the Duke School of Forestry. Each recommendation will be accompanied by the student's application for admission and a transcript of his academic record at Lebanon Valley College. No application need be made to the School of Forestry prior to this time.

The following curriculum is recommended for students intending taken under this program. Each student selects one of the curricula indicated for the fifth year.

Following the completion of this curriculum the student will spend twelve (12) months at the Harrisburg Hospital School for Medical Technologists, or another approved school, in pursuit of its regular curriculum as prescribed by The American Society of Clinical Pathologists. On the successful completion of both phases of the curriculum the student will be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology by Lebanon Valley College.

NURSING

ADVISER: DR. WILSON

The five-year Nursing Plan offers to young women intending to enter the field of nursing an opportunity to obtain a liberal arts education in connection with their nurses' education.

Lebanon Valley College has an affiliation with the Harrisburg Hospital School of Nursing for a five-year curriculum in nursing. Students may enter other schools of nursing by mutual agreement.

Curriculum

The first two years will be spent at Lebanon Valley College in pursuit of the following program of study.

			Hours Credit

The next three years will be spent at the School of Nursing in pursuit of the regular curriculum. At the end of these five years the student who has successfully completed both phases of the curriculum will be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing by Lebanon Valley College and the diploma in nursing by the School of Nursing.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

NURSING EDUCATION

Lebanon Valley College and Wilkes College have entered into a cooperative program whereby nurses working in the vicinity of Annville and Lebanon may earn a degree in Nursing Education from Wilkes College by taking their academic credits on the campus at Lebanon Valley College and their professional credits at Wilkes College, either in extension at the hospital or in residence at Wilkes-Barre.

The usual residence requirements for a degree in Nursing Education may be satisfied by taking one-half the work on the campus at Lebanon Valley College and the other one-half at Wilkes College.

TEACHING

ADVISERS: DR. MCKLVEEN AND DR. EBERSOLE

Certification requirements in the various states make it imperative that prospective teachers begin planning their work during the freshman year in college. The planning should take into consideration requirements in professional education and requirements in academic subject matter.

A. Requirements in Professional Courses for Certification in Pennsylvania

1. Professional courses designed to meet Elementary Certification requirements.

The provisional college certificate may be issued to an applicant who has completed an approved four-year college curriculum in the elementary field including courses in education distributed as follows:

- a. Introduction to Education 3 sem. hrs.
- b. Educational Psychology (General Psychology is a pre-requisite) 3 sem. hrs.
- c. Thirty semester hours of approved courses in the field of elementary education including three hours each in Teaching of Music, Teaching of Art, and Health and Safety Education, and six to twelve semester hours of elementary student teaching. See curriculum outline on page 39.

2. Professional courses designed to meet Secondary Certification requirements.

The provisional college certificate may be issued to an applicant who has completed an approved four-year college curriculum including courses in education distributed as follows:

- a. Introduction to Education 3 sem. hrs.
 - b. Educational Psychology (General Psychology is a pre-requisite) 3 sem. hrs.
 - c. Student Teaching 6 sem. hrs.
 - d. Electives in secondary education from courses listed below 6 sem. hrs.
- Educational Measurements

B. Requirements in Academic Subject Matter, Secondary Field

1. Academic subjects will be written on the college certificate on the completion of eighteen semester hours of approved credit in each field:
 1. English
 2. Mathematics
 3. Any foreign language
 4. Geography
 5. History
 6. Social Studies:
 - a. Nine semester hours in history
 - b. Nine semester hours in social science, including not less than three semester hours each in sociology, economics, and political science.
 7. Science:
 - a. Biological Science—a minimum of six semester hours each, in botany and zoology, and six semester hours in either field or in courses definitely related to the biological sciences.
 - b. Physical Science—a minimum of six semester hours each, in physics and chemistry, and six semester hours in either field or in courses definitely related to the physical sciences.
 - c. General Science:
 - (1) General science will be written on a college certificate on the completion of eighteen hours in any or all of the sciences.
 - (2) Certification for any of the specialized sciences is considered a valid certificate for teaching general science.
2. For all college provisional certificates a basic course in the History of United States and Pennsylvania is required.

Students are advised to elect such courses in philosophy, history, science, political science, sociology, English, economics, and education as will give a thorough basic preparation for the advanced studies offered by the theological seminaries.

Students who plan to enter United Theological Seminary must have twelve or more hours credit in college Greek if they wish to elect Greek in the Seminary.

Courses of Study by Divisions and Departments

Course Numbering System

Courses are numbered as follows: 0-19 indicates courses offered at the freshman level; 20-29 indicates courses offered at the sophomore level; 30-39 indicates courses offered at the junior level; 40-49 indicates courses offered at the senior level; 101-132 indicates courses in applied music.

If the year is not indicated after a course, it is understood that the course is offered every year. Courses that continue throughout the year are listed in two ways. If either semester may be taken as a separate unit, without the other semester, the course will be listed as a and b. For example, a student may take English 21b even though he has not had English 21a and does not expect to take it. But if no letter is indicated with the course number, a student may not enter the course at mid-year.

Course Credit

Semester hours of credit, class hours per week, and laboratory hours per week are indicated by three numbers immediately following the course title, i.e., Biology 12a-12b "4:3:2 per semester" means four semester hours of credit, three classroom hours per week, and two laboratory hours per week each semester.

Courses of Study by Divisions

Divisional Organization

In order to provide integrated courses, cutting as they do across departmental lines, and to attain greater efficiency in administration, divisional organization has been initiated. Departments of study which fall within related areas of learning are organized into divisions, each with a director. Two divisions have been thus organized, and further extension of the system is contemplated.

The Science Division comprises the Departments of Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics and Psychology.

The Humanities Division comprises the Departments of English, French, German, Greek, Latin, Spanish, and Philosophy. Professor Struble, Director.

The Social Studies Division comprises the Departments of History and Political Science, and Sociology. Professor Laughlin, Director.

Each course in integrated studies is administered by the appropriate division and differs from departmental courses in that it is not confined to one branch of knowledge, but incorporates subject matter from various departments within the division. By this means the student is enabled to coordinate his knowledge, one branch with another, the various branches with his chosen specialty and with the problems of living in a complex environment.

Statement of Aims

In harmony with a widespread trend among colleges, Lebanon Valley College is currently engaged in evaluating and revising its program of studies. The key word for an understanding of this trend is integration—the subject matter of education so organized and so presented that the student is constantly aware of the interrelatedness of all knowledge. The ideal of integrated studies is to construct for the student a broad highway over which he may travel in his pilgrimage toward his goal—a single avenue rather than the many little parallel paths over which students have formerly traveled under the departmentalized system of education. For obvious practical and administrative reasons, however, that ideal has not yet been attained in any college. Lebanon Valley College is neither ready, on the one hand, to abolish departments, nor, on the other hand, to offer a single course that will embrace all knowledge. But we have attempted to organize the fundamental knowledge of a liberal education into three main courses: one embracing the sciences, one arts and letters, and a third social studies. Plans to interrelate these three in terms of teaching techniques are still in the process of formulation.

CATALOGUE

The program of integrated studies, as offered at Lebanon Valley College, is designed: to give the student an adequate conception of the nature of the physical universe in which he lives; to awaken in the student an intelligent interest in personal, family, social, and civic problems; to present in an orderly fashion various rival views of life in the belief that the student, once aware of their differences, may intelligently shape his own attitudes; to provide the student with an enhanced appreciation of the highest reaches of the human spirit as found in literature, art, and music; to prepare the student to live with himself and with others. Integration will not indeed provide ready-made answers to all problems, but will give the student a better understanding of the problems, and an increased awareness of the historical backgrounds that brought them into being. Behind our plan of integrated studies is the fundamental premise that our students will go into the world not only to follow chosen professions, but also as human beings, confronted with the wide variety of choices in thinking and action which modern living entails.

We wish to make it explicit at this point that we do not oppose specialization. For the student who has chosen his profession, integrated courses will provide the foundation on which specialization may be built. In addition, by showing how his chosen subject fits into the larger pattern, integration will make his specialization more meaningful and therefore more effective. For the student who is uncertain about his plans for the future, integrated studies will provide opportunity to explore wide areas of knowledge and experience, and will aid him in discovering his own aptitudes and interests. These courses should better equip students to assume their responsibilities as members of their local communities and as citizens of a democracy. To achieve this we offer four courses.

INTEGRATED STUDIES

Science Division

10. Integrated Sciences.

Mr. Wilson

4:3:2 per semester.

A study of the fundamental aspects of measurement—time, space, mass, and energy, and the modern concepts of structure, property, behavior, and energy of living and non-living matter.

For students who plan to major in fields other than science. Laboratory fee, $10.00 per semester.

Humanities Division

20. Humanities. Man's Quest for Values as Recorded in the Literature of the Western World.

Mr. Struble, Mr. Ehrhart,

Mrs. Faber, Mr. Keller, Mr. Bradley

4:4:0 per semester. Required of all sophomores.

A detailed study will be made of significant material from the ancient and modern literatures of continental Europe, and from English and

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

American literature. The aim will be to trace the developing mind of man and the growth of his sense of aesthetic and ethical values. Attempts will be made, throughout the course, to show how developments in literature are paralleled by similar developments in art and music. To this end free use will be made of picture exhibits, slides, motion pictures, and phonograph records. One aim of the course will be to provide the student with genuinely aesthetic experiences.

Social Studies Division

- 30. Integrated Social Studies. Mrs. Laughlin, Miss Brumbaugh,
Mr. Shay, Mr. Fehr

4:4:0 per semester. Required of all college juniors.

This course is designed to provide the student with an understanding of the origins and operation of contemporary society. It will offer training helpful in making thoughtful appraisals of social situations, and it will integrate subject matter from the fields of history, economics, political science, and sociology by a study of the historical development and current functioning of institutions in these areas. Materials used will include library references, visual aids, and field trips.

- 32. Contemporary World Affairs. Mr. Fehr
2:2:0. Second semester.

A study of current developments in the field of public affairs, literature, science, religion, music, drama, art. Instruction in procedures useful in evaluation of material received through various media of communication, such as newspapers, radio, TV, filmstrips, recordings, and specialized publications. Attention is given to broad domestic and international problems facing the United States.

Courses of Study by Departments

BIOLOGY

PROFESSORS LIGHT AND WILSON

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BOLLINGER

The work outlined in the following courses in biology is intended to develop an appreciation of man's relation to his universe, to acquaint students with those fundamental facts necessary for the proper interpretation of the phenomena manifested by the living things with which they are surrounded, and to lay a broad foundation for specialization in professional courses in biology.

The courses are designed to prepare students for the work in medical schools, schools for medical technologists, hospital schools for training of nurses, for graduate work in colleges and universities, for teaching the biological sciences in high schools, and for assistant-ships in university and experiment station laboratories in the departments of agriculture and the United States Biological Survey.

Major: Biology 18 and sixteen additional hours in courses of higher number.

Minor: Biology 18 and ten additional hours in courses of higher number.

12a-12b. General Biology (Cultural).

Mr. Bollinger

4:3:2 per semester.

Designed primarily for students who do not intend to major in the sciences. This course stresses the general aspects of the biological sciences. It can, however, serve as a foundation for the more advanced courses.

Laboratory fee, $10.00 per semester. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

18a-18b. General Biology (Professional).

Mr. Wilson

4:2:4 per semester.

Representative forms of plant life are studied the first semester and representative forms of animal life the second semester. Structure, and biological laws and principles are stressed.

Laboratory fee, $10.00 per semester. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

21. Microbiology.

Mr. Light

4:2:4. First semester.

A study of bacteria, molds, yeasts, richettsias, and viruses, including laboratory technique in sterilization and in methods of cultivating, isolating, and staining bacteria.

Required of those preparing for medical technology. Laboratory fee, $10.00. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

22. Genetics.

Mr. Light

4:3:2. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

This course deals with the mechanism and laws of heredity and variation, and their practical applications.

Laboratory fee, $10.00. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

23. Entomology.

Mr. Light

4:2:4. First semester. Offered 1958-1959.

This course presents the student with the various orders of insects, their characteristics and life histories, and includes a study of their economic importance. Field trips and a collection of insects are supplementary to the classroom work.

Laboratory fee, $10.00. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

28a-28b. Botany.

Mr. Bollinger

4:2:4 per semester. Offered 1958-1959.

The course provides a general knowledge of the plant kingdom. One or more types of each of the classes of algae, fungi, liverworts, mosses, ferns, and seed plants are studied.

Special attention is given to the phylogeny and ontogeny of the several groups, and constant comparisons are made of those structures indicating relationships. The principles of classification are taught by the identification of species of plants represented in the local fall and spring flora. These studies are conducted in the field so that the plants are seen as dynamic forces adapted to their environment.

Laboratory fee, $10.00 per semester. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

31. Vertebrate Embryology.

Mr. Wilson

4:2:4. Second semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A survey of the principles of development, with laboratory work on the frog, the chick, and the pig.

Laboratory fee, $10.00. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

32. Animal Physiology.

Mr. Light

4:2:4. Second semester.

This course presents the basic concepts of physiology, with special reference to man.

Laboratory fee, $10.00. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

33. Introduction to Forestry.

Mr. Bollinger

4:2:4. Second semester. Offered 1957-1958.

In this course the student is taught to identify the common trees and shrubs. Special attention is given to their ecological importance. Forest products such as fruits, wood, paper, resins, and the distribution of trees in the United States are studied. A collection of seeds and leaves of the various species studied is required.

Laboratory fee, $10.00. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

34. Plant Physiology.

Mr. Bollinger

4:2:4. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

This course acquaints the student with the various functions of parts of plants. It includes lectures and experimental work on the processes of photosynthesis, nutrition, respiration, growth, the role of hormones, digestion, absorption, etc.

CATALOGUE

Laboratory fee, $10.00. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

38a-38b. Zoology.

Mr. Light

4:2:4 per semester. Offered 1957-1958.

This course acquaints the student with the structure, life history, and behavior of representatives of each phylum of animals. In the study of types, structure, function, and adaptation are given equal emphasis. The principles of phylogeny and ontogeny are considered.

The laboratory and class work are supplemented by field studies including observations of habits, ecological conditions, and the use of keys for identification and classification.

Laboratory fee, $10.00 per semester. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

42. Parasitology.

Mr. Wilson

3:2:2. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

Human and animal parasites are studied to illustrate the phenomenon of parasites and their importance in the understanding of many of the problems of human populations, conservation, and animal disease.

Laboratory fee, $10.00. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

44. Biological Problems.

Staff

Credit hours and time adjusted to the problem assigned. Laboratory work with conferences.

Limited to students majoring in biology who have made a distinguished record. It consists in working out problems assigned to them involving a practical application of various methods of technique, originality of method and interpretation, and the development of the spirit of research. A weekly conference and report on the progress of the work are required, and a detailed report including complete records of the work done must be presented before semester examinations.

Laboratory fee, $10.00 per semester. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

45. Vertebrate Histology and Microtechnique.

Mr. Wilson

4:2:4. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

This course deals with the cells, tissues, and organ systems of the vertebrate body, with special reference to the mammal. Modern micro-technical procedures are included in the course.

Laboratory fee, $10.00. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

48. Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy.

Mr. Wilson

5:3:4. First semester. Offered 1958-1959.

The anatomy of the chordates is studied from a comparative viewpoint emphasizing the changes leading toward mammalian structure. The laboratory work consists mainly of the dissection of the dogfish and the cat, but pertinent demonstrations from bony fish, amphibians, reptiles, and birds are used to illustrate important variations in structure.

Laboratory fee, $10.00. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

49a-49b. Materials and Techniques for the Biology Teacher.

2:2:0 per semester. Offered 1957-1958.

Mr. Light

The first semester presents methods of obtaining, preparing, and preserving all kinds of biological materials. Various types of tests and devices used in teaching, sources of equipment, lists of books and periodicals useful to science students and teachers, and the making of charts and models are also included.

The second semester covers the fundamentals of taxidermy, the preparation of skeletons, photography and lantern-slide making.

Laboratory fee, $4.00 per semester. Breakage deposit, $2.00.

CHEMISTRY

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR NEIDIG

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS KLINE AND NEITHAMER

Students majoring in chemistry are rigorously schooled in the techniques and principles of modern chemistry. Coupled with a liberal arts education, such training prepares the student for a successful life both as a citizen and a scientist. The department provides students interested in the teaching profession an opportunity to study chemistry and the various techniques of teaching science. Adequate training is provided for students interested in industrial work or advanced study in chemistry.

Juniors and seniors may participate in the departmental honors program if they have demonstrated a high scholastic ability and proficiency in both experimental and theoretical chemistry. To be recommended for departmental honors, a student is required: (1) to submit a thesis based on extensive laboratory investigation of an original problem; (2) to take a comprehensive examination, and (3) to defend the thesis before an appropriate examining committee.

For outline of complete Pre-Medical curriculum, see pages 47-48.

For outline of course leading to the degree of B.S. in Chemistry, see page 37.

Major: Chemistry 12, 20, 21, 22, six additional hours, departmental comprehensive examination.

Minor: Chemistry 12 and ten additional hours with the consent of the Chairman of the Department of Chemistry.

B.S. in Chemistry: Chemistry 12, 20, 21, 22, 40, 44, nine additional hours, departmental comprehensive examination.

12. General Inorganic Chemistry.

Mr. Kline, Mr. Neithamer

4:3:3 per semester.

A systematic study of fundamental principles and of the sources, properties, and uses of the important elements and compounds.

Laboratory fee, $12.00 per semester. Breakage deposit, $5.00 per semester.

CATALOGUE

- 20. Qualitative Inorganic Analysis. Mr. Kline
4:2:8. First semester.
The course includes a study of the methods for systematically separating and identifying all of the common metals and acid radicals.
Prerequisite: Chemistry 12. Laboratory fee, $12.00. Breakage deposit, $5.00.
- 21. Quantitative Inorganic Analysis. Mr. Kline
4:2:8. Second semester.
A coverage of the fundamentals of gravimetric, volumetric and colorimetric analysis. The presentation of the theory of quantitative analytical procedures.
Prerequisite: Chemistry 20. Laboratory fee, $12.00. Breakage deposit, $5.00.
- 22. Organic Chemistry. Mr. Neidig
4:3:4 per semester.
A study of the preparation, chemical behavior and industrial use of aliphatic and aromatic compounds.
Prerequisite: Chemistry 12. Laboratory fee, $12.00 per semester. Breakage deposit, $10.00 per semester.
- 30. Advanced Quantitative Analysis. Mr. Neithamer
3:2:4. First semester.
The study of the methods employed for the sampling and analysis of industrially important materials. The techniques involved include polarography, chromatography, spectrophotometry, polarimetry, spectrography, and potentiometry.
Prerequisite: Chemistry 21. Laboratory fee, $12.00. Breakage deposit, $5.00.
- 31. Qualitative Organic Analysis. Mr. Neidig
3:1:8. First semester.
A course in the principles and methods of organic analysis. The laboratory work includes the identification of organic compounds, the separation of mixtures and the interpretation of laboratory data.
Prerequisite: Chemistry 22. Laboratory fee, $12.00. Breakage deposit, $5.00.
- 34. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry. Mr. Neithamer
3:3:0. Second semester.
A study of the elements based upon the periodic table including a presentation of modern concepts of atomic and molecular structure.
Prerequisite: Chemistry 21.
- 35a-35b. Laboratory Techniques. Staff
2:1:4 per semester. Offered 1958-1959.
A course designed to introduce the student to advanced laboratory methods by the preparation and analysis of inorganic and organic compounds.
Prerequisite: Chemistry 21 and 22. Laboratory fee, $16.00 per semester. Breakage deposit, $10.00 per semester.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

40. Physical Chemistry.

Mr. Neithamer

4:3:4 per semester.

A course in the rigorous approach to theoretical chemistry emphasizing the physico-chemical methods in the laboratory.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 21 and 22, Physics 20, and Mathematics 11. Laboratory fee, $12.00 per semester. Breakage deposit, $5.00 per semester.

41. Advanced Organic Chemistry.

Mr. Neidig

3:2:4. Second semester.

A study of the preparation and reactions of multi-functional, heterocyclic and alicyclic compounds including a fundamental approach to reaction mechanisms.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 22. Laboratory fee, $12.00. Breakage deposit, $10.00.

43a-43b. Physical Bio-Chemistry.

Mr. Neidig

3:3:0 per semester.

A course in the physical and organic aspects of living systems.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 22.

44a-44b. Special Problems.

Staff

2:1:4 per semester. A maximum of eight semester hours credit may be earned in this course.

Intensive library and laboratory study of topics of special interest to advanced students in the major areas of chemistry.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 21 and 22, and the consent of the Chairman of the Department. Laboratory fee, $16.00 per semester. Breakage deposit, $10.00 per semester.

ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR RILEY

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS TOM AND EGLI

The department aims to give students a thorough training in the essential principles and fundamentals of business and economics. At the same time it offers sufficient electives to provide students preparing for a business career, government civil service, the teaching profession, law schools or graduate schools, with a general cultural education.

In order to receive departmental honors, a student is required to: (a) apply for honors by the end of the sophomore year and do preliminary work for one year; (b) be admitted, upon basis of acceptable scholarship, to full status in the honors program by the end of the junior year; enroll in the Economics Seminar and devote both semesters of the senior year to internship, experimentation, research, reading, and/or writing; (c) take a comprehensive examination; (d) appear before an examining committee comprised of the departmental staff and a faculty representative of the department in which the student has taken a minor.

For an outline of the suggested course in Economics and Business administration see page 38.

Major: Economics 20, 23, eighteen additional hours in economics as approved by the adviser, and departmental comprehensive examination. (These additional hours should include Economics 35, 36, 40.2, 48.)

Economics 20 is a prerequisite for all courses in economics of a higher number except 23 and 32.

Minor: Economics 20 and twelve additional hours in economics with the consent of the Chairman of the Department of Economics and Business Administration.

ECONOMICS

10. Economic Geography.

Mr. Tom

3:3:0. First semester.

Problems studied include: the geographical distribution, the significance and consequences of uneven production, and solutions to the surplus and deficit problem of economic resources. Attention is given to the political, social, and cultural aspects of world geography, but with emphasis on the economic aspects. Interrelationships between climate, soil, rainfall, and vegetable resources are discussed.

11. Introduction to American Business and Industry.

Mr. Tom

3:3:0. Second semester.

A survey of the development of the American economic system as a whole, the nature of the various leading industries—agricultural and non-agricultural, consumer goods and producer goods, and the relationship between these industries and the broader aspects of our national economic life.

20. Principles of Economics.

Mr. Riley or Mr. Tom

3:3:0 per semester.

An introductory course in economic principles: consumption, production, banking and monetary theories and policies, governmental activities and fiscal policies, price system and allocation of resources, price levels and business fluctuation, theory of employment and income, and international economics.

Prerequisite for courses of a higher number within the department, except 23 and 32.

23. Principles of Accounting.

4:3:2 per semester.

Accounting principles and their application in service, trading, and manufacturing businesses operating as single proprietorships, partnerships, and corporations. Topics studied include: the accounting cycle—journalizing, posting, worksheet, financial statements, adjusting, closing; basic partnership problems—formation, distribution of profits, dissolution; corporation and manufacturing accounting; basic problems of depreciation, depletion, valuation; introduction to analysis, interpretation, and use of financial statements.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Accounting, the language of business, provides a tool to implement work in other fields of business administration.

30. Intermediate Accounting.

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1958-1959

Intensively covers valuation accounting relating to working capital items—cash, temporary investments, receivables, inventories, current liabilities; noncurrent items—investments, plant and equipment, intangible assets and deferred charges, and long-term liabilities; and corporate capital. Includes nature of income, cost, and expense; statement of source and application of funds; and statement preparation and analysis. Attention is given to relevant official pronouncements in accounting. CPA examination accounting theory questions are utilized.

Prerequisite: Economics 23.

31. Advanced Accounting.

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

Accounting for joint ventures; special sales procedures—installment, consignment, agency and branch; parent and subsidiary accounting—consolidations and mergers; fiduciary and budgetary accounting—statement of affairs, receivership, estates and trusts, governmental accounting; foreign exchange; insurance; actuarial science and applications. Attention is given to relevant official pronouncements in accounting. CPA examination accounting problems are utilized.

Prerequisite: Economics 30.

32. Business Law.

Mr. Egli

3:3:0 per semester. Offered 1958-1959.

Elementary principles of law generally related to the field of business including contracts, agency, sales, bailments, insurance, and negotiable instruments.

34. Retailing and Sales Management.

Mr. Tom

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

Special attention is given to the artistic developments of the Renaissance, to the Wars of Religion, to the French Revolution, and to the Napoleonic era.

23. Political and Social History of the United States and Pennsylvania. Mr. Toole
3:3:0. First semester.

A general course in American and Pennsylvania History from the time of independence to the present. Emphasis is placed on the role of Pennsylvania in national, political, and cultural developments. This course is open only to students in the Department of Music.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

24a-24b. Political and Social History of the United States and Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Laughlin, Mr. Toole

3:3:0 per semester.

A survey of American History from the earliest settlements to the present. Special attention is given to the history of the colony and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This course fulfills the state teaching certification requirement for United States and Pennsylvania history.

27. Diplomatic History of the United States.

Mr. Toole

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A survey of the foreign relations of the United States since its inception as a nation. Emphasis is placed on the development of notable foreign policies and their effect on American life, the relation of the nation with specific areas, the influence of personalities in the field of diplomacy, the effect of domestic conditions upon foreign relations, and the current international position of the United States.

29a-29b. Economic History of the United States.

Mr. Toole

2:2:0 per semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A study of the economic background of American History, including the growth of American agriculture and industrial interests, from colonial beginnings to their present day development.

31. Europe from 1815 to 1914.

Mr. Shay

3:3:0. First semester.

Nineteenth century Europe from the Congress of Vienna to the outbreak of World War I. Emphasis is placed on diplomatic relations, revolutionary and liberal movements, the new colonialism, and the social changes of the latter part of the nineteenth century.

32. Europe from 1914 to the Present.

Mr. Shay

3:3:0. Second semester.

A study of World Wars I and II emphasizing the causes of the world wars, the efforts to maintain the peace, the rise of dictatorships, the tension in international relations, and the post-war periods.

33. History of the Far East.

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1958-1959.

A study of the social, political, economic, and cultural institutions of the Far East prior to 1500 and the subsequent changes growing out of contact with the Western World. Emphasis is placed upon the trends since 1500, the emergence of Japan from isolation and her development as a world power; the reformation and revolution in China, and her struggle for unity; the rise of nationalism in Southeastern Asia; and developments since the end of World War II.

34. History of Russia.

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

The history of Russia from ancient times to the present. Attention is given to the late seventeenth, eighteenth, and nineteenth centuries; to the Revolutions of 1905 and 1917, and to the period of communist control.

CATALOGUE

36. History of England and the British Empire. Mr. Shay

3:3:0 per semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A survey of the history of England and the Empire from earliest times to the present. All aspects of English life are covered.

37. The History of the Middle East. Mr. Shay

2:2:0 per semester. Offered 1957-1958.

The development of the countries of the Middle East with emphasis on events of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and their significance in world affairs. Attention is paid to the relations between Europe, the Americas, and the Middle East during the rise and decline of the Ottoman power, western imperialism in the Middle East, and the strategic and economic importance of the area in international affairs.

38. History of Latin America.

2:2:0 per semester. Offered 1958-1959.

A survey of the political and cultural development of the Latin American Republics. The period of independence, internal development, and relations with the United States are emphasized.

42a-42b. American Biography.

Mr. Toole

1:1:0 per semester.

A study of the achievements of American men and women who typify important social and political trends. For the year 1957-1958 the selections in the first semester will be made from the colonial period to the end of the Civil War; in the second semester they will be taken from the period since 1865.

43. History of Pennsylvania.

3:3:0. First semester.

A study of the political and social history of Pennsylvania with special emphasis on the different types of settlers and on the contribution of the Commonwealth to the history of the nation.

44. Source Problems in American History. Mrs. Laughlin

2:2:0 per semester. Open only to History majors, except by special permission.

This course acquaints the student with the use of source materials and methods of historical research.

Geography 10a-10b. See page 78.

Methods of Teaching History. See Education 49, page 72

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Major: Political Science 10a-10b, 20, 21, 30, 31, 32, 40, 41, Integrated Social Studies 30, departmental comprehensive examination.

Minor: Political Science 10a-10b, 20, 21, 32, three additional hours, Integrated Social Studies 30.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

10a-10b. American Government and Politics.

Mr. Fehr

3:3:0 per semester.

A study of the structure and functions of the various branches of the federal government; the Constitution; federalism and its problems; civil rights; political parties and pressure groups; elections, and the increasing powers of the federal government. Attention is given to problems facing our government and to current world affairs.

20. Comparative Government.

Mr. Fehr

3:3:0. First semester.

A comparative study of the important governmental systems of the world, both democratic and authoritarian. Comparison and contrasts are made between unitary and federal forms. Special study is made of the governmental system in force in the Soviet Union.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

21. Foreign Relations.

Mr. Fehr

3:3:0. Second semester.

A study of the development, structure, and functions of the United States diplomatic and consular service. Consideration is given to recruitment, training, and promotions in the Foreign Service. Emphasis is given to the problems faced by American diplomatic officials as revealed in contemporary international relations.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

22. State and County Government.

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1958-1959.

This course deals with the structure and functions of state and county government. Emphasis is placed on federal-state-local relationships, on administrative organization and services, on the courts, and on legislative representation.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

23. City Government.

Mr. Fehr

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

This course deals with the rise of urbanization and the accompanying growth of municipal functions. Attention is paid to metropolitan areas, to the legal process and status of cities, to municipal relations with state and national government, to urban politics, and to the various forms of city government.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

30. Political Parties in the United States.

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1958-1959.

A study of the history and origins of political parties, their organization, development, methods of operation, leaders, machines and bosses, campaigns and platforms.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

CATALOGUE

31. American Constitutional Government.

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

A study of the growth and development of the Constitution through the medium of judicial construction. Recent decisions illustrating its application to new conditions of the present age, and proposals for court modification, are given particular attention.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

32. Contemporary World Affairs.

Mr. Fehr

2:2:0. Second Semester.

A study of current developments in the field of public affairs, literature, science, religion, music, drama, and art. Instruction is given in the use and evaluation of various communications media—the daily newspaper, the weekly news magazine, radio and TV, filmstrips, recordings, and specialized publications. Attention is given to broad domestic and international problems facing the United States.

33. Public Opinion.

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

An analysis of the nature and sources of contemporary public opinion, with special attention to types of censorship and to modern propaganda devices.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

40. Political Theory.

Mr. Fehr

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A survey of the different philosophies and theories of government, ancient and modern, with special reference to political philosophy since the sixteenth century.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

41. International Politics.

Mr. Fehr

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A course in the origin, forms, dynamics and prospects of the international political pattern, with emphasis on current developments and changing concepts in world politics.

Political Science 10a-10b is a prerequisite, or a corequisite.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

MATHEMATICS

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR BISSINGER, INSTRUCTOR LOVE

Courses are available for students interested in acquiring mathematical techniques for applied sciences as well as for students intending to prepare for graduate school. Students are encouraged to select courses suggested by their individual needs and abilities.

Plan of Study for Departmental Majors

For both the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees the introductory course Physics 20, General College Physics, must be taken. For the Bachelor of Arts degree the minor must be in Physics or in a non-science department. For the Bachelor of Science degree the minor must be in biology or chemistry. In addition to the general requirement in foreign language shown on page 36, the student majoring in this department is urged to take sufficient French or German to permit the reading of mathematical works in these languages.

In the senior year a candidate for a degree will take three examinations:

1. The Graduate Record Advanced Mathematics Examination.
2. a. A comprehensive examination on basic courses.
b. An oral examination covering department course material and independent work done in the honors program.
3. The William Lowell Putnam Competitive Examination.

Honors Program

Students majoring in mathematics may participate in the departmental honors program and be graduated with honors when they have fulfilled the following requirements: (1) demonstrate in their academic work the caliber of scholarship required to undertake extensive research projects; (2) apply for and receive permission for such participation from the department chairman and from the Dean of the College, no later than the end of the first semester of the junior year; (3) obtain departmental approval of a research project; (4) prepare an essay on the subject selected for research under the guidance of a member of the departmental staff; (5) complete the writing of the essay by the end of the first semester of the senior year; (6) defend the solution of the project in a manner to be determined by the departmental staff and by the Dean of the College; (7) complete a take-home examination on problems requiring the use of reference material and foreign language translation.

Major: Mathematics 11, 22, 23, 30, and four additional one-semester courses.

Minor: Mathematics 11, 22, 23 in sequence, and six additional hours.

CATALOGUE

10. Introduction to Mathematical Analysis. Mr. Love

3:3:0 per semester.

A unified course involving training in concepts of arithmetic, algebra, trigonometry, and graphical analysis. The nature and significance of mathematics is stressed.

Prerequisite: Two years of high school algebra.

11. Analytical Geometry and Calculus. Mr. Bissinger

3:3:0 per semester.

The fundamental ideas of plane analytical geometry are interwoven with those of differential and integral calculus.

A thorough background in trigonometry is required.

12. Elementary Statistics. Mr. Love

3:3:0. Second semester.

Mathematical methods are used to conclude probable results from observed data.

Not open to students who have credit for Mathematics 11.

19. Mathematics of Finance. Mr. Love

3:3:0. First semester.

This course presents mathematical principles and operations in compound interest, compound discount, and annuities.

22. Advanced Calculus. Mr. Bissinger

3:3:0. First semester.

This course introduces partial differentiation, multiple integration, and infinite series.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 11.

23. Differential Equations. Mr. Bissinger

3:3:0. Second semester.

Ordinary types of differential equations are studied by Laplace transformation, series, graphical and numerical methods. Fourier series and boundary value problems are introduced.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 22.

30. Applications of Advanced Calculus. Mr. Bissinger

3:3:0 per semester.

The student solves differential equations and thereby studies Legendre and Bessel functions, characteristic value problems, orthogonal functions, complex variables, and the calculus of residues. Some vector technique is taught.

37. Mathematical Statistics. Mr. Bissinger

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

Calculus is used to develop basic statistical tools and notions. Generating functions, frequency distribution of one, two, or more variables, and various tests are considered.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 11.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

40. Methods of Applied Mathematics.

Mr. Bissinger

3:3:0 per semester.

Use is made of matrices and determinants, the concepts of linear vector spaces and characteristic value. Formulation and solution of partial differential equations are accompanied by a treatment of integral equations and Green's function.

47. Matrix Algebra.

Mr. Bissinger

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1957-1958.

Study is made of linear equations, linear dependence, vector spaces, bases, operators, transformations, and matrices. Applications are made to geometry and physics.

48. Modern Algebra.

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

Integral domains, groups, rings, fields, and ideals are emphasized through an axiomatic approach with applications.

40.1 Mathematics Seminar.

Staff

2:2:0 per semester.

A study of modern higher mathematics. Special problems given on recent competitive examinations are presented and discussed in class. Part of the work may be done in French or German.

Open to departmental majors only.

PHILOSOPHY

PROFESSOR EHRHART

Philosophy is man's quest for universal knowledge both about the world in which he lives and about himself, understood in their broadest and deepest relationships. The method of philosophy is free and open inquiry. Its aim is the increase of wisdom among men.

Major: Philosophy 10, 11, 20a-20b, 35a-35b, six additional semester hours, and departmental comprehensive examination. Two hours credit in Humanities 20 is transferable to a Philosophy major.

Minor: Philosophy 10, 11, 20a-20b, 35a-35b.

10. Introduction to Philosophy.

Mr. Ehrhart

3:3:0. First semester.

An introduction to the basic method and some of the main problems of philosophy which gives students both an inkling of the work of the greatest thinkers and an opportunity to do some philosophizing of their own.

11. Introduction to Logic.

Mr. Ehrhart

3:3:0. Second semester.

Introduction to the rules of clear and effective thinking, as well as those of exact communication and the logical use of language. Attention is given both to the classical deductive logic, and to inductive logic and scientific method. Considerable use is made of exercises and problems.

CATALOGUE

20a. Ancient Philosophy. Mr. Ehrhart

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1958-1959.

This course traces the rise of Western philosophy from its non-philosophical origin in Greek religion, through the teachings of Plato and Aristotle, and the Hellenistic philosophies of Stoicism and Epicureanism.

20b. Medieval Philosophy. Mr. Ehrhart

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

This course continues the history of Western philosophical thought, tracing it through the thinking of the early Church Fathers, Neo-Platonism, and the Scholastic period of medieval philosophy.

30. Ethics. Mr. Ehrhart

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

An inquiry into the major theories on the nature of the good and the good life; examination of the problems of moral relativism and moral freedom; and discussion of the practical problems of morality as they are encountered in personal, political, and economic life.

31. Philosophy of Religion. Mr. Ehrhart

3:3:0. Second semester.

A study of the issues raised for philosophy by contemporary religious and theological thought. A critical examination of such problems as faith and reason; the meanings of revelation, symbolism and language; the arguments for the existence of God; faith and history; religion and culture.

35a. Modern Philosophy. Mr. Ehrhart

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

In this course, which is the logical continuation of Philosophy 20a-20b, the changes brought about in philosophical thinking by the cultural and scientific renaissance are examined and a study made of philosophical developments from Bacon and Descartes through Kant.

35b. Recent and Contemporary Philosophy. Mr. Ehrhart

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1957-1958.

History of Western philosophy brought down to the present, starting with the philosophy of Fichte and concluding with a study of the living philosophers as well as the outstanding contemporary schools of philosophy.

41. Aesthetics. Mr. Ehrhart

2:2:0. First semester. Offered 1958-1959.

A survey of the philosophy of the beautiful, the correlation of the same with the development of the fine arts, and a consideration of fundamental principles of criticism.

PHYSICS

INSTRUCTOR LOVE

The Physics Department aims to provide an introduction to the techniques and applications of physical science; to give students an insight into the behavior of non-living matter; to indicate the possible extent, as well as the limitations, of our knowledge of the physical universe.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Major: Physics 20, 32, 43, 45, and four additional hours.

Minor: Physics 20 and ten additional hours.

20. General College Physics.

4:3:3 per semester.

An investigation of the fundamental principles of physical science and the practical applications of physical laws and principles.

This course is a prerequisite to all courses of higher number.

Laboratory fee, $10.00 per semester.

32. Magnetism and Electricity.

4:3:2. First semester.

The laws of the electric and magnetic fields and the power applications of electricity as direct and low frequency alternating currents. Measurements of potential, current, resistance, capacity, and inductance in the field of direct and alternating currents at low and high frequencies.

Laboratory fee, $10.00.

40. Analytical and Theoretical Mechanics.

3:3:0 per semester.

Emphasizes the fundamental nature of mechanics to all theoretical physics. Free use is made of ordinary and partial differential equations in the study of particle dynamics, problems of oscillation, vibrations and wave motion. Solutions by separation of variables and Fourier Series; elasticity and hydrodynamics.

43. Light: Optics and Spectroscopy.

4:3:2. First semester.

The nature of light and its transmission through various media including reflection, refraction, and dispersion.

Laboratory fee, $10.00.

45. Modern Physics.

4:3:2. Second semester.

An investigation of the application and physical principles to molecular, atomic, and electronic phenomena. Recent developments in nuclear physics.

Laboratory fee, $10.00.

46. High Frequency Alternating Currents.

4:3:2. Second semester.

The generation of high frequency alternating currents and their application to radio transmission and its associated equipment.

Laboratory fee, $10.00.

47. Heat and Thermodynamics.

3:3:0. Second semester.

The theory of heat, kinetic theory of gases, and the laws of thermodynamics.

PSYCHOLOGY

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS LOVE AND DENT

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR EBERSOLE

In keeping with the objective of the liberal arts, church-related college, the courses offered in the Department of Psychology are designed (1) to develop in the student an understanding and appreciation of the biological and environmental bases of human behavior and of the role of that behavior in adjustment; (2) to foster healthy adjustment through the objective application of psychological principles to problems related to personal, vocational, and moral growth, and (3) to furnish a theoretical, scientific, and practical acquaintance with principles, methods, and techniques not only basic to graduate study and employment in psychology but beneficial in the many occupations in which psychology is applied.

Major: Twenty-four hours, including Psychology 20 and 35. Psychology majors are required to take Mathematics 12, Elementary Statistics.

Minor: Eighteen hours, including Psychology 20 and 35.

20. General Psychology.

Miss Love

3:3:0. Either semester.

A course designed to acquaint the student with psychological principles and their application in daily life.

21. Psychology of Childhood.

Mr. Ebersole, Miss Dent

3:3:0. First semester.

A study of the psychological development of the child from the beginning of life to adolescence with emphasis on practical problems of child care and training.

Laboratory fee of one dollar.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

22. Mental Hygiene.

Miss Love

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A study of normal personality adjustment problems.

23. Educational Psychology.

Miss Love

3:3:0. Either semester.

A psychological study of the nature of the learner and the nature of the learning process.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

30. Applied Psychology.

Miss Love

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

A survey of the applications of psychology to vocational guidance, personnel problems in business and industry, public opinion and propaganda, advertising methods, work efficiency, and fatigue.

Laboratory fee of two dollars.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

31. Psychology of Adolescence.

Miss Love

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A study of psychological development from childhood to maturity including physical, intellectual, social, emotional, and moral growth.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

32. Abnormal Psychology.

Miss Love

3:3:0. First semester.

An introduction from the biosocial viewpoint to the behavior disorders, with emphasis on the dynamics of behavior as related to pathology; and the diagnostic categories of the psychoses and psychoneuroses.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

33. Social Psychology.

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1958-1959.

A study of psychological facts and principles as they apply to problems arising from the interaction of individuals and groups in modern society.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

35. Experimental Psychology.

3:3:0. Second semester.

An introduction to the methods and techniques of experimental research in psychology.

Laboratory fee of five dollars.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

41. Introduction to Clinical Psychology.

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

An introduction to current methods of diagnosis and psychotherapy of behavior problems, and to the applications of psychology in clinical situations.

Laboratory fee of three dollars.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

42. Mental Tests and Measurements.

Miss Love

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1957-1958.

An introduction to theory and practice of intelligence testing, including a practicum in administration of individual intelligence tests.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

Educational Measurements. See Education 30, page 69.

Principles of Guidance Organizations and Administration. See Education 41, page 72.

RELIGION

PROFESSORS RICHIE AND EHRHART

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR SPARKS

The aim of this department is to provide opportunity for the study of our religious and moral heritage.

The department seeks to orient the student to a Christian world view. It strives to provide an appreciation and understanding of the Holy Scriptures and the heritage of the Christian Church; to develop skills for practical service in a local church or community, and to enhance Christian living as a dynamic experience.

Professionally, basic foundations are offered to those students preparing for the Christian ministry, the world mission field, the teaching of religion, and other church vocations.

Major: Religion 10a-10b, 11a-11b, 32, Philosophy 31, and 11 additional semester hours.

Minor: Religion 10a-10b, 11a-11b, 20, 30, 32, and four additional semester hours.

10a-10b. Introduction to English Bible.

Mr. Sparks

2:2:0 per semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A historical survey of the literature of the Old and New Testaments.

11a-11b. Introduction to Religion.

Mr. Sparks

2:2:0 per semester. Offered 1958-1959.

A study of the nature of God, the worth of man, science and religion, personal religious living, the Judaeo-Christian tradition as found in the Old and New Testaments, the place of the Church in modern life, and contemporary problems in the field of religion.

20. The Prophets.

Mr. Richie

2:2:0. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A study of the lives of the major and minor prophets, and an analysis of their contributions to the ethical and religious thought of the Old Testament.

21. The History and Religion of the Hebrews.

Mr. Richie

2:2:0. First semester. Offered 1958-1959.

The religious growth of the Hebrews during the period of the Old Testament.

30. Life and Epistles of Paul.

Mr. Richie

2:2:0. Second semester. Offered 1957-1958.

The life and epistles of Paul; the practices, problems, and beliefs of the early church.

31. The Christian Church.

Mr. Richie

2:2:0. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A study of the growth of Christianity beyond the early church, with special emphasis on the origin and growth of denominations.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

32. The Teachings of Jesus.

Mr. Ehrhart

2:2:0. First semester.

An intensive study of the religious concepts of Jesus as set forth in the Gospels.

40. Principles of Religious Education.

2:2:0. First semester. Offered 1958-1959.

Investigation of some of the principles and problems of religious education.

41. The Church School.

2:2:0. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

A study of the principles, problems, and methods in the organization and administration of the Sunday School, Church Vacation School, and Week Day School of Religion.

42. The History of Religion.

2:2:0. Second semester. Offered 1958-1959.

The rise and development of religion. A study of comparative religions.

43. Biblical Archaeology.

Mr. Richie

2:2:0. Second semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A review of the findings of the explorer, excavator, and scholar and their evaluation in relation to Bible facts and teachings.

Philosophy of Religion. See Philosophy 31.

SOCIOLOGY

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR BRUMBAUGH

The aim of the department is to prepare students for citizenship by acquainting them with the principles and problems of human associations within the several fields of specialized study. The courses are intended to be preprofessional as well as cultural.

Major: Sociology 20, 21, 22, 30, 31, 33, 40, 43, Integrated Studies 30, departmental comprehensive examinations.

Minor: Sociology 20, 21, 22, six additional hours, Integrated Studies 30.

CATALOGUE

20. Introductory Sociology. Miss Brumbaugh

3:3:0. First semester.

Topics studied are: the nature of man's social heritage, the bearing of group life upon the individual's personality, the development of social institutions and community life, and the forces involved in social change and reorganization.

21. Modern Social Problems. Miss Brumbaugh

3:3:0. Second semester.

This course deals with the preventive and remedial aspects of current social problems such as poverty, physical and mental health, juvenile delinquency, adolescence, race, old age, national security and civil liberties.

22. Marriage and the Family. Miss Brumbaugh

2:2:0. Second semester.

Anthropological and historical materials are drawn upon for a comparative analysis of family types and theories of family relationships. Discussions include the topics: courtship and marriage, parenthood, formation of personality within the family, and family disorganization.

30. Criminology. Miss Brumbaugh

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1958-1959.

A study of the causes of crime and the treatment of criminals; criminal behavior; the police system and the criminal courts; treatment of juvenile offenders: punishment, probation, parole, and reform. Observation of social agencies dealing with the crime problem is required.

Sociology 20 and 21 are prerequisites.

31. Introduction to Social Work. Miss Brumbaugh

3:3:0 per semester. Offered 1958-1959.

A pre-professional course dealing with the nature and requirements of the fields of social work. Observation of the work of private and public agencies in this field is required. Fee, $1.00 per semester.

Sociology 20 and 21 are prerequisites.

33. Social Institutions. Miss Brumbaugh

3:3:0. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A study of the organization of contemporary American society with special emphasis on institutions such as the church, the family, economic and governmental organizations, and the school. An analysis is made of the interrelationship of these institutions and of their place in American culture.

Sociology 20 and 21 are prerequisites.

40. Population. Miss Brumbaugh

2:2:0. First semester. Offered 1957-1958.

A study of the size, growth, composition, and distribution of the peoples of the earth. Emphasis is placed on the social significance of the nature and change of population.

Sociology 20 and 21 are prerequisites.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

42. Rural Sociology.

Miss Brumbaugh

2:2:0 per semester.

This course deals with the population composition, institutions, and problems of rural life; with the attitudes, structures, and organization of rural communities; with the processes of social change as found in rural areas. Field work is required.

Sociology 20 and 21 are prerequisites.

43. Development of Sociological Theory.

Miss Brumbaugh

3:3:0. Second semester. Offered 1957-1958.

The Conservatory of Music

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR SMITH, Acting Chairman; PROFESSORS BENDER, CARMEAN, GILLESPIE; ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS CAMPBELL, CRAWFORD, FAIRLAMB, MALSH, STACHOW; ASSISTANT PROFESSORS LANESE, ROVERS, THURMOND; INSTRUCTOR KNISLEY

THE aim of the Conservatory of Music is to train artists, teachers, and supervisors; to teach music historically and aesthetically as an element of liberal culture and to offer courses that give a thorough and practical understanding of theoretical subjects.

Major: See program outlined below.

Attendance at faculty recitals and student campus recitals is compulsory. Faculty recitals are given at 8:30 p.m., and campus recitals at 4:00 p.m.

Minor: Twenty semester hours credit in music courses including continuous private lessons on an instrument or in voice the entire four years. Part of this work must be in theory of music. The selection of courses must be approved by the Chairman of the Music Department.

Courses must be selected from the following: Sight Singing 10, 11, 20; Ear Training (Dictation) 12, 13, 22; Theory of Music 14, 15, 21, 24, 39, 40.1, 31, 40.2; History of Music 30a, 30b; Music Literature 32; Conducting 35, 36, 45; College Chorus 105a-105b.

MUSIC EDUCATION

For Training Supervisors and Teachers of Public School Music (B.S. with a major in Music Education)

This course has been approved by the Pennsylvania State Council of Education and the National Association of Schools of Music for the preparation of supervisors and teachers of music education.

The Music Education curriculum for teachers and supervisors requires two private lessons per week, one of which is included in the tuition charge. A charge is made for the second private lesson. Tuition also includes the use of a practice room two hours daily and theoretical and college courses not exceeding a total of seventeen semester hours per semester. For cost of private lessons see page 19.

The Department of Music requires all majors in Music Education to take private instruction on campus, if the Department offers instruction in the individual's principal performance medium.

The Music Education curriculum is as follows:

DESCRIPTION OF MUSIC COURSES

I. Theory of Music

Sight Singing

10. Beginning Sight Singing.

Miss Gillespie

2:3:0. First semester.

A beginning course in music reading. It is integrated with studies being simultaneously introduced and used in Dictation 12 and Harmony 14.

11. Intermediate Sight Singing.

Miss Gillespie

2:3:0. Second semester.

This course covers the study equivalent to any advanced reading material necessary for use in music education.

20. Advanced Sight Singing.

Mr. Smith, Mr. Lanese

2:2:0. First semester.

A continuation with exercises and instrumental and vocal literature of increasing difficulty, both tonal and rhythmic. Study and application of tempo, dynamic and interpretative markings.

Speed and accuracy are expected. New literature is constantly used, resulting in an extensive survey of music materials.

Dictation (Ear Training)

12. Beginning Ear Training.

Mrs. Bender

2:3:0. First semester.

A study of tone and rhythm including the writing of intervals, melodies, and chord progressions as dictated from the piano; integrated with Sight Singing and Harmony.

13. Intermediate Ear Training.

Mrs. Bender

2:2:0. Second semester.

A continuation of the study of tone, rhythm, and intervals with emphasis upon the development of harmonic dictation.

22. Advanced Ear Training.

Mrs. Bender

2:2:0. First semester.

A study of the more difficult tonal problems and complicated rhythms. Chromatic dictation correlated with chromatic harmony. The development of ability to recognize and write chord progressions, including modulation, and altered chords.

Harmony

14. Beginning Harmony.

Mr. Stachow

3:3:0. First semester.

A study of the rudiments of music including notation, scales, intervals, and triads; the connection of triads by harmonizing melodies and basses with fundamental triads; playing of simple cadences at the piano; analysis of phrases and periods.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

15. Intermediate Harmony.

Mr. Stachow

3:3:0. Second semester.

A study of inversions of triads, seventh and ninth chords, harmonizations of melodies and figured basses; analysis and composition of the smaller forms; modulation.

24. Chromatic Harmony.

2:2:0. First semester.

The use of dominant and diminished sevenths as embellishments of and substitutes for diatonic harmony; harmonization of melodies and figured basses; analysis of two and three-part song forms; composition in two-part song form. Playing of more advanced cadences and modulations at the piano.

39. Keyboard Harmony.

Mrs. Bender

2:2:0. Second semester.

Harmonization at the piano of melodies, both with four part harmony and accompaniment; transposition; modulation; improvisation.

Additional Theory Courses

21. Scoring for the Band.

Mr. Stachow

2:2:0. Second semester.

Study of instrumentation, devices, techniques, and mechanics of scoring transcriptions, arrangements and solos for concert band; special work in scoring for marching band. Laboratory analysis and demonstration of various instrumental colors and combinations. Emphasis is placed on creative scoring.

31. Form and Analysis.

Mr. Lanese

2:2:0. First semester.

A study of the structure of music including hymns and simple folk songs, two and three part song forms, variations, contrapuntal forms, rondo and sonata forms. Compositions in these forms are studied and analyzed for harmonic content and structure.

40.1 Counterpoint.

Mr. Lanese

2:2:0. First or second semester.

Elementary work in strict counterpoint (five species in two part and three part counterpoint).

40.2. Arranging and Scoring for the Modern Orchestra. Mr. Stachow

2:2:0. First or second semester.

Study of modern harmony, modulation, style analysis, special instrumental effects as applied to modern arranging. Laboratory analysis and demonstration of sectional and ensemble voicings.

40.3 Composition, Schillinger System.

Mr. Stachow

Private teaching.

A scientific system of music composition created by the late Joseph Schillinger, teacher of such accomplished professionals as George Gershwin, Ted Royal Dewar.

CATALOGUE

The major aims of the system are to: (1) generalize underlying principles regarding the behavior of tonal phenomena; (2) classify all the available resources of our tonal system; (3) teach a comprehensive application of scientific method to all components of the tonal art, to problems of melody, rhythm, harmony, counterpoint, orchestration and to composition itself.

The system is best studied in the light of a traditional background and admission to course or private instruction is by special permission only.

II. Methods and Materials

23. Methods and Materials, Vocal: First, Second and Third Grades.

3:3:0. Second semester.

Miss Gillespie

A comprehensive study of the use of the child's singing voice in the primary grades, including the treatment of uncertain singers, acquaintance with the best collections of rote songs, and practice in choosing, memorizing, singing, and presenting a large number of these songs; methods of presenting rhythm through singing games and simple interpretative movements; beginnings of directed music appreciation; foundation studies for later technical developments. Comparative study of recognized Public School Music Series of books.

33A. Methods and Materials, Vocal: Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grades.

2:2:0. First semester.

Miss Gillespie

A study of the child's singing voice in the intermediate grades; attention is given to the formal or technical work of these grades with an evaluation of appropriate texts and recent approaches. Preparation of lesson plans, and observation are required. Music appreciation is continued.

33B. Methods and Materials, Instrumental: Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grades.

1:1:0. First semester.

Mr. Thurmond

A study of methods and materials used in teaching band and orchestral instruments to children in these grades, with emphasis on a sound rhythmic approach. Both individual and class techniques are studied.

34A. Methods and Materials, Vocal: Junior and Senior High School.

2:2:0. Second semester.

Miss Gillespie

A study of adolescent tendencies of high school students. This course proposes to acquaint the student with organization and class content of materials to be used. Recent trends in teaching are studied.

34B. Methods and Materials, Instrumental: Junior and Senior High School.

1:1:0. Second semester.

Mr. Thurmond

Intermediate and advanced instrumental teaching techniques; methods of organizing and directing school orchestras and bands.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

43. Advanced Problems.

Mr. Thurmond

2:2:0. Second semester.

A study of the general and specific problems which confront the director of school orchestras, bands, and instrumental classes. Problems of general interest include: organization and management, stimulating and maintaining interest; selecting beginners; scheduling rehearsals and class lessons; financing and purchasing instruments, uniforms, and other equipment; marching band formations and drills; evaluating music materials; organizing festivals, contests, and public performances.

44. Methods in Piano Pedagogy.

Mrs. Bender

2:2:0. First semester.

A study of methods of teaching piano to children and adults. The course includes the song approach method, presentation of the fundamental principles of rhythm, sight reading, tone quality, form, technique, pedaling, transposition and the harmonization of simple melodies. Materials are examined and discussed.

49. Seminar in Advanced Instrumental Problems. Mr. Thurmond

3:3:0. Offered in summer session.

Use of the tape recorder, preparation of an extensive list of the most used musical terms, methods of raising money; analysis of the attitudes of teenagers toward studying music; establishment of an inventory for band uniforms; specifications for music rooms in new buildings; consultations with visiting music directors and school administrators; observation of nearby summer instrumental programs.

III. Student Teaching

40a-40b. Student Teaching.

Mr. Thurmond, Instrumental

6 hours credit per semester.

Mr. Smith, Vocal

Student teaching in Music Education is done in the Annville-Cleona Joint and the Derry Township Consolidated Schools and includes vocal and instrumental work from elementary to senior high school.

A fee of $20.00 per semester is charged.

49. Advanced Instrumental Teaching.

Mr. Thurmond

3:3:0. Offered in summer session.

Actual experience with practical problems involved in the following activities: teaching advanced instrumental classes, conducting sectional rehearsals and full band rehearsals, organizing and developing an exploratory instrument class, training a young marching band, scheduling, preparing and presenting a public concert.

IV. Instrumental Courses

Class Instruction in Band and Orchestral Instruments

Practical courses in which students, in addition to being taught the fundamental principles underlying the playing of all band and orchestral instruments, learn to play on instruments of each group, viz., string, woodwind, brass, and percussion. Problems of class procedure in public schools are discussed; transposition of all instruments is taught and an extensive bibliography is prepared. Ensemble playing is an integral part of these courses.

Brass Instruments (Cornet, Trumpet, French Horn, Trombone, Baritone, Tuba)

16. Beginning Brass. Mr. Smith

1:2:0. First semester.

A study of any two of the above instruments.

17. Intermediate Brass. Mr. Smith

1:2:0. Second semester.

A study of the remainder of the above instruments.

Percussion Instruments (Snare Drum, Tympany, Bass Drum, etc.)

18. Beginning Percussion. Mr. Smith

½:1:0. First semester.

A study of snare drum only.

48. Intermediate Percussion. Mr. Smith

½:1:0. Second semester.

A study of the remainder of the above listed instruments.

Woodwind Instruments (Clarinet, Flute, Piccolo, Oboe, Saxophone, Bassoon)

25. Beginning Woodwind. Mr. Stachow

1:2:0. First semester.

The study of the clarinet.

26. Intermediate Woodwind. Mr. Stachow

1:2:0. Second semester.

A study of the remainder of the above listed instruments.

String Instruments (Violin, Viola, 'Cello, String Bass)

37. Beginning String. Mr. Lanese

1:2:0. First semester.

A study of all of the above listed instruments.

38. Intermediate String. Mr. Lanese

1:2:0. Second semester.

A continuation of the study of all of the above listed instruments.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Instrumental Seminar.

½:1:0 or 1:2:0. First or second semester.

Application of specific techniques to problems of class instruction.

41.1-41.2 Brass	Prerequisite: Brass 17.	Mr. Smith
41.3-41.4 Percussion	Prerequisite: Percussion 48.	Mr. Smith
41.5-41.6 String	Prerequisite: String 38.	Mr. Lanese
41.7-41.8 Woodwind	Prerequisite: Woodwind 26.	Mr. Stachow

V. Music Organizations

Opportunities for individual performance in a group experience are provided by music organizations. Membership in the organizations is open on an audition basis to all students.

101a-101b. College Band.*

Mr. Thurmond

1:2:0, First semester. 1½:3:0, Second semester.

Lebanon Valley College maintains a uniformed band which contributes to college life by playing at football games, presenting concerts during the year, and providing the musical accompaniment for the annual May Day pageant. Off campus activities include appearances in neighboring communities. Membership in the band is determined by an applicant's ability and by the needs of the band with respect to maintaining a well-balanced instrumentation.

102a-102b. Girls' Band.*

Mr. Thurmond

½:1:0 per semester.

Membership in this band is determined by the applicant's ability, and by the needs of the band with respect to maintaining a well-balanced instrumentation. The group presents a spring concert.

103a-103b. Symphony Orchestra.*

Mr. Lanese

1½:3:0, First semester. 1:2:0, Second semester.

The Symphony Orchestra is an organization of symphonic proportions maintaining a high standard of performance. A professional interpretation of a wide range of standard orchestral literature is insisted upon.

104a-104b. Glee Club.*

Mr. Thurmond

1:2:0 per semester.

The Glee Club is a mixed chorus of selected voices. The personnel of the organization is limited to forty members. Choral literature of the highest type is studied intensively. In addition to on-campus programs and appearances in neighboring communities, the Glee Club makes an annual concert tour.

105a-105b. College Chorus.*

Mr. Rovers

½:1:0 per semester.

The Chorus provides an opportunity to study and participate in the presentation of choral literature of the Masters. It is open to all students who are interested in this type of musical performance and who have had some experience in singing.

* Course may be repeated with credit.

CATALOGUE

106a-106b. Beginning Ensemble.* Mr. Thurmond and Mr. Lanese

½:1:0 per semester.

A training band and orchestra wherein students play secondary instruments and become acquainted with elementary band and orchestral literature. Opportunity is given for advanced conducting students to gain experience in conducting.

Instrumental Small Ensembles.*

¼:1:0 per semester.

Open to the advanced player on an audition basis.

107a-107b	String Quartet.	Mr. Lanese
108a-108b	String Trio.	Mr. Lanese
109a-109b	Woodwind Quartet.	Mr. Stachow
110a-110b	Woodwind Quintet.	Mr. Stachow
111a-111b	Brass Ensemble.	Mr. Thurmond

VI. The History and Appreciation of Music

30a-30b. History of Music. Mr. Lanese

3:3:0 per semester.

The first developments of music are treated briefly, and special emphasis is placed on the work of the contrapuntal schools and the development of the harmonic idea in composition including the rise of opera, oratorio, and instrumental music in the sonata form. The first semester covers the development of music through the period of Beethoven. Music of each period, style, and composer is studied. The second semester includes the musical styles, forms, and composers of the Romantic, Impressionistic, and Contemporary periods.

32. Music Literature. Miss Gillespie

2:2:0. Second semester.

A study of music literature for elementary, secondary, and adult levels. Interpretation of, response to, and appreciation of music. Emphasis is placed on instrumental literature.

VII. Conducting

35. Elementary Conducting. Mr. Lanese

2:2:0. First semester.

Principles of conducting and a study of the technique of the baton are presented. Each student conducts vocal and instrumental ensembles made up of the class personnel.

36. Intermediate Conducting. Mr. Lanese

2:2:0. Second semester.

A detailed and comprehensive study of the factors involved in the interpretation of choral and instrumental music.

* Course may be repeated with credit.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

45. Advanced Conducting.

Mr. Thurmond

2:2:0. First semester.

In addition to conducting from full score, each student conducts in rehearsal the various concert organizations.

VIII. Miscellaneous Courses

27. Beginning Eurhythmics, Movement to Music.

Miss Gillespie

1:1:0. Second semester.

This course offers a three-fold development: coordination through mental control; physical poise through movements in response to rhythm, and a musical sense through analysis of the rhythmic element in music.

30.1 Advanced Eurhythmics, Movement to Music.

Miss Gillespie

1:1:0. Second semester.

A general survey of elementary and intermediate floor work. The principles underlying the presentation of this to children are interpreted and discussed. Applied improvisation is an integral part of the course.

28. Care and Repair of Instruments.

Mr. Carmean

1:1:0. First or second semester.

An analytical laboratory technique applied to methods of construction of band and orchestral instruments. With this information as a background, preventive measures are established to avoid undue wear and deterioration of the instruments. Through actual experience the student acquires proficiency in the operations necessary in replacements and repair.

46. Physical Science. (Science of Sound)

Mr. Carmean

3:3:0. First semester.

Cultivation of a scientific approach to sound and tone, with emphasis on their application to music and musical instruments.

Laboratory fee, $2.00.

IX. Individual Instruction

131-132. Voice, Piano, Organ, Orchestral and Band Instruments.

$\frac{1}{2}:\frac{1}{2}:0$ per semester.

The work in the foregoing fields is organized from the standpoint of the development and musicianship in the individual student. The work continues through eight semesters and assures a well-rounded and many-sided acquaintance with various musical techniques.

Organ: Mr. Campbell

Piano: Mrs. Bender, Mr. Fairlamb, Mrs. Knisley

Violin: Mr. Malsh

Voice: Mr. Crawford, Mr. Rovers

Brass: Mr. Thurmond

Viola, 'Cello, String Bass: Mr. Lanese

Woodwind: Mr. Stachow

X. Preparatory Department

The Conservatory of Music sponsors a preparatory department adapted to children of elementary or high school age. Both adults and children are admitted at any stage of advancement.

CATALOGUE

The preparatory department offers either private or class instruction in piano, voice, and all instruments of the band and orchestra. A desirable number for class instruction is from four to six students.

THE STUDENT RECITALS

The student recitals are of inestimable value to all students in acquainting them with a wide range of the best musical literature, in developing musical taste and discrimination, in affording experience in appearing before an audience, and in gaining self-reliance as well as nerve control and stage demeanor.

Students at all levels of performance appear in these student recitals.
